INTRODUCTION

This book is an evolution of several previous books and genealogical research. Naomi Louise Addington Patterson started researching her Addington roots in 1968. Jane Edwards started in 1984 to research her heritage. At a family reunion in 1988, it was decided that all their Addington family research should be compiled into a book for the next year's reunion. Unfortunately, Naomi died of cancer in the fall of 1988. Jane Edwards completed the book and it was presented to the 1989 Addington Reunion.

The current author, David Vern Addington, had been researching his Addington roots, which are the northern branch of Addingtons in Indiana. In 1992, he completed his book, "An Addington/Chalfant Family History" and presented it at the 1992 Addington Reunion in Union County, South Carolina.

A couple of years later, it was decided at one of the Addington Reunions that it was probably time to update the family history. Veda Addington Lindsey stepped forward to take up the challenge. Veda took all the information from the previous two books plus all the new information available and in 1996 published her book "ADDINGTON the Family of Henry and Sarah Addington beginning in Bucks County, Pennsylvania." Veda later added some new data and issued a second revision of her work in 2002, which was issued only in electronic form. In 2008, Veda turned over all of her Addington research information to the current author.

This current work starts from the 2006 pdf version and adds the new family information that has become available. Let me say that Veda did an outstanding job of researching and writing her book and there are but a few minor errors. I still stand in awe of the excellent work she did.

At the 2012 Addington Reunion there was a discussion on updating our descendants' list and the author accepted the challenge with the prevision that it would be a few years in the future after the author retired and had more time to complete the task. It was also decided that the next book would be issued in electronic form only since the major cost is in the printing of the hardback books. This would allow the inclusion of family photographs and more family stories and keep the costs under control.

The digitization of many records on the Internet, mainly due to ancestry.com, has led to a surge in the amount of genealogical records available. This is wonderful to have this available but there is the problem that there is a lot of mis-information presented and undocumented information or assumptions made. The author has used his personal judgment and experience to decide what data should be accepted and what to reject. The author prefers to error on the side of being more strict rather than less strict in accepting questionable data.

The author has been collecting old family photographs for several years and has included as many as possible. The photos show that these were real people who lived, raised their families, aged and passed on their values and ideals to the next generation. Short biographies have been included on some family members when they showed some special qualities in their lives.

ADDINGTONS OF ENGLAND

The name of Addington is derived from a place called "Eadda." The interpretation of "Addington" is Eadda's people.

Concentrations of Addingtons in England

Burks General Armory, published in London, in 1844, describes four different Coat of Arms as belonging to Addingtons of England. A Coat of Arms does not belong to a family, but to an individual given a grant of arms from a heraldic authority or on descent from the original grantee.

From "THE ANNALS OF THE ADDINGTON FAMILY," by E. M. G. Belfield, 1959

Two districts known as Addington are found in Cornwall and Lancashire. Villages named "Addington" are located in Surrey, Kent, Buckinghamshire, and two in Northamptonshire. At Fringford, Oxfordshire, Addingtons with names of Margery, Henry, William, John, Ann, Ralph, Robert, Richard, Katherine, Elizabeth, etc. are on record. Addingtons have retained the names of their ancestors at Fringford.

A genealogical diagram of Addingtons of England charts the family from 1351 to 1959, giving dates of births, deaths, and marriages. The first being William Addington, 1351, down to Raymond Anthony Addington, Sixth Viscount Sidmouth, 1959.

HENRY AND SARAH ADDINGTON

HENRY and SARAH ADDINGTON are the first ancestors of this line of Addington families known to be in this country who are confirmed by recorded documents. HENRY ADDINGTON was born approximately 1720, probably in Bucks County, Pennsylvania. He died 25 July 1787 in the 96th District, Union County, South Carolina. SARAH "BURSON" ADDINGTON was born 1723/1726 in Pennsylvania, and died 14 March 1826 near Richmond, Wayne County, Indiana.

The parents of HENRY and SARAH are not confirmed. HENRY may be the son of JOHN and ELIZABETH ADDINGTON of Bucks County, Pennsylvania. SARAH's family name of "BURSON" has not been certified, but has been written in family histories as "Sarah Burson, Sarah Buson, Elizabeth Burson, Elizabeth Buson, and Sarah Elizabeth Burson." She may be the daughter of JOSEPH BURSON and RACHEL POTTS.

The BURSON family was Quakers. There is no evidence to indicate that the early Addingtons were Quakers. There is the possibility that SARAH was condemned for marrying outside the church and would not have been readmitted unless her husband became a Quaker. Evidently, HENRY ADDINGTON never joined the Quaker denomination even though he lived in Quaker neighborhoods and some of his children became Quakers.

It is believed that HENRY ADDINGTON married SARAH in Bucks County, Pennsylvania, and five of their children were born there. The sixth child may have been born there also.

A lives-lease agreement, dated 12 September 1765, with George William Fairfax of Loudoun County, Virginia, is an early confirmed record of HENRY ADDINGTON. The lease for 150 acres near the Potomac River names his wife, SARAH, and their youngest son, WILLIAM. HENRY built a log house with seven rooms, a root cellar, and four fireplaces on this property in 1767, in accordance with the lease agreement. It has been restored, modernized, and is being lived in today. On 17 June 1768, he transferred the lease to Charles Snyder for 80 pounds current money.

The lure of better land and land grants drew the neighboring families of Thomas Lamb, John Martindale, and John Gore from Virginia to Berkley (now Union) County, South Carolina. HENRY and SARAH joined the migration and moved their family to South Carolina probably in 1768 but certainly by 1772.

On 11 August 1774, HENRY ADDINGTON received a land grant from King George III for 250 acres on Enoree River between John's Creek and Frenchman's Creek in 96th District, South Carolina. HENRY and SARAH were living on this farm when HENRY died in 1787. Henry's will, written 1 Mar 1787 and submitted to court on 3 Aug 1787, gives us much information on his family.

HENRY gave to his son, WILLIAM, the responsibility for the care of SARAH in his will. But, SARAH did not stay with WILLIAM and moved to Indiana in 1806 with her son, JOHN.

SARAH is presumed to have been buried in the Friends Community Cemetery, Chester, Indiana. The 1857 "Directory of Richmond, Indiana," lists early settlers including JOHN ADDINGTON and states "ADDINGTON's mother came with him, died at 103 years of age." There is no record of SARAH ADDINGTON ever becoming a Quaker.

1778 Henry Addinton paid taxes in the amount of 5 pounds and 1 pound, 5 shilling, at Northampton Township (May be another family since our Henry Addington is in South Carolina by this date)

1780 9 Aug - Jane Adington married John Donhaven at Swedes Church, Philadelphia. (This Jane may be from another family)

The timing seems logical that the John Addington in these records from 1693 to 1722 is probably Henry's father. John Addington would have probably been at least 21 years of age in 1693 when he is first recorded as paying taxes. This would make John's birth year on or before 1672. A wife Elizabeth is only mentioned in 1722 and Henry would have been about 50 years old. If Henry Addington is the son of John and Elizabeth Addington and was born *ca*1720, Henry would have been approximately 15 years old when the case dated December, 1735, was filed. Henry's birth year could have been earlier around 1714 which would make him 21 in 1735. Henry's birth year has always been listed as 1720 but no vital records has ever been found to support this date.

There are legal records that place Henry Addington in Bucks County from 1735 till 1755. It appears that Henry then may have moved to nearby Chester County because a Henry Addison is listed in West Bradford Township land records in 1758, 1760, and 1763. There is also a single reference in a Philadelphia German newspaper to a Henrich Addington on Israel Pemberton's plantation at the forks of the Brandywine, which is in Chester County. This reference to Henrich Addington is probably our Henry and the first name has been Germanized for the German newspaper. This single reference is no way signifies that Henry had a German background. Henry Addington was probably just moving to find better land to support his family. We next find him moving to Loudoun County, Virginia for the same purpose.

The record that Henry Addington was born in London comes from a Bible record that was written in 1877 in Kansas. There are some inconsistencies in this Bible record that make this doubtful or questionable. The author thinks it is more likely that the John Addington who shows up in Bucks County records from 1693 to 1722, is most likely Henry's father. In searching English records, there are around 6 or 7 possibilities for our John Addington who was born about the right time. The first name John seems to be the most common male first name in this era. It seems like a third to a half of all Addington males were named John. Baptism records are the most common records of this time period and often no other records exist to know what happened after the birth and baptism. We simply have run out of records to determine where in England our John Addington originated, however, some new Y-DNA data has become available that adds to our understanding of the various Addington families, both in America and England.

A 6th generation direct line male descendant of Thomas Addington (b. *ca*1750, d. 1819, Grafton Regis, Northamptonshire, m. Martha Craft) has participated in our Y-DNA study and the results show that our families had a common male ancestor in the not too distant past.

By comparing the genetic distance apart of the Y-DNA data, we can say that our family descending from Henry Addington(1714/20-1787) and the English family descending from Thomas Addington, (b. *ca*1750, d. 1819, Grafton Regis, Northamptonshire) shared a common male ancestor probably some time in the 1500-1600 time frame (9 to 12 generations back). At this time we can not take either family back far enough to establish the exact common ancestor.

In 2020 on familytreedna.com, there was a Y-DNA match of 3 genetic units distance at 67 markers between the Y-DNA of a descendant of Henry Addington(1714/20-1787) and an English Addington who descends from the Prime Minister Henry Addington(1757-1844). Because of the promise of confidentiality, the individual will not be identified but just state that he is a 6th generation direct line male descendant of Prime Minister Henry Addington.

The match was close enough to confirm that the American family of Henry Addington (1714/20-1787) and the family of the Prime Minister Henry Addington (1757-1844) had a common male ancestor in the not too distant past.

The family of Prime Minister Henry Addington was well documented in the 1959 book "Annals of the Addington Family." Information from this book and other data from ancestry.com were used to see where the families may connect.

The most probable connection appears to be a John Addington, bapt. 19 Nov 1671 Stepney, Saint Dunstan, London, parents Laurence and Mary Addington

In "Annals of the Addington Family", there is a Ralph Addington, mentioned in parent's will, buried at Finmere, Oxfordshire in 1592. The book says from this Ralph Addington, the Finmere and Chetwode Addingtons descend.

From English records, these are the only Addington records from Chetwode:

Thomas	Addington	M	Birth	abt 1587	Chetwode	Buckingham
Thomas	Addington	M	Marriage	16 Feb 1612	Chetwode	Buckingham
Laurence	Addington	M	Christening	29 Mar 1613	Chetwode	Buckingham
Anne	Addington	F	Christening	Jan 1615	Chetwode	Buckingham
Anne	Addington	F	Christening	14 Sep 1637	Chetwode	Buckingham
Mary	Addington	F	Christening	14 Sep 1637	Chetwode	Buckingham
Laurence	Addington	M	Christening	24 Apr 1648	Chetwode	Buckingham

Laurence, spelled this way, is not a very common name in the Addington family, nonetheless, this data would suggest that Thomas could be a son or grandson of Ralph, he had a son Laurence, bapt 1613 and a grandson Laurence bapt 1648. This Laurence would have been 23 years old when the John Addington, was bapt. in 1671 at Stepney, Saint Dunstan, London.

Here is the discussion of this John Addington from the recent ProGenealogist's report:

John Addington, baptized 1668 in St Dunstan, Stepney, London and John Addington, baptized 1671 in St Dunstan, Stepney

John Addington, baptized 1668, was the son of John Addington, a porter of Limehouse and his wife Mary. John Addington, baptized 1671, was the son of Laurence Addington, a porter of Limehouse and his wife Mary. The similarity in details immediately raised the question of whether a mistake was made at the 1668 baptism and the father should really have been recorded as Laurence. One of the most common mistakes found in parish registers is for the clergyman or parish clerk to have written the child's or one of the parents' names out twice by mistake. If this were to prove the case here, the fact that the two baptisms occurred within a few years of each other, would suggest that the first John died as an infant.

In this era, it was common to name a succeeding child with the same name if an earlier child of that name had died.

We found that in 1670, John, son of Laurence Addington of Limehouse was buried, which added weight to our theory. We found no other baptism to a John and Mary Addington in the Stepney area but found that Laurence and Mary had other children Elizabeth (1669) and Laurence (1675), both also baptized in St Dunstan.

We felt we had enough evidence to conclude that the father's name had been mistakenly recorded as John instead of Laurence in 1668 and that this child died in 1670, meaning he was excluded as being your ancestor. This left John, baptized in 1671, remaining as a candidate.

We could find no evidence that this John died or married in London. We found that John's younger brother, Laurence, a shipwright, married in Stepney in 1703, so he remained in the area. We considered Laurence Addington Sr. further and found that he was likely baptized in Chetwode, Buckinghamshire in 1648 and he appears to have been transported from Newgate Prison to Barbados in 1683.

We cannot rule out the 1671 John with any certainty, and living where he did, he would certainly have had the opportunity to join a voyage to the New World and so he remains a good candidate to be the father of your ancestor Henry.

The fact that Laurence Addington, Sr. was transported to Barbados in the New World in 1683 suggests that his son John might have also migrated to the New World.

If John Addington, bapt. 1671, Stepney is the John Addington of the 1693 Bucks Co., PA record, then Our Common Ancestor would be Robert Addington, of Potterspury, will proved 1555.

Generations	Cumulative percentage of having a common male ancestor based of Y-dna genetic distance
10	75.9%
11	85.3%	Ralph Addington, mentioned in parents will, buried at Finmere, Oxfordshire in 1592
12	91.0%	Robert Addington, of Potterspury, will proved 1555 (common to Prime Minister Henry Addington line)
13	94.6%	John Addington of Blackwell End, Potters Pury, Northamptonshire, will proved 1514 (common to Prime Minister Henry Addington line)

When Laurence Addington was shipped to Barbados in 1683, his son John would have been 12 years old. John probably stayed in London but maybe he too was shipped to Barbados. One proposed scenario is that this John Addington eventually became an indentured servant and was sent to serve out his indenture to Philadelphia. He would have served out his indenture of maybe 5 years (normal length of indenture according to research). Then he would have gained his freedom and stayed in the area and then he shows up in the 1693 legal record in Bucks County.

My opinion that this is a very plausible scenario and has a probability of about 80-90% of being correct. Our John Addington could have come from some other lines in England that connect to the Prime Minister Henry Addington line but we have insufficient information to make any other reasonable connection at this time.

It would appear that our Addington family ultimately goes back to the Potterspury area in Northamptonshire, England in the 1500s.

In summary, the new Y-DNA show that the families of:

(1) Prime Minister Henry Addington (1757-1844)
(2) English Addington family descended from Thomas Addington (b. *ca*1750, d. 1819, Grafton Regis, Northamptonshire)
(3) American Addington family descended from Henry Addington (1714/20-1787)

all shared a common male ancestor in the not too distant past (roughly 10-13 generations back)

The English Henry Addington was born 30 May 1757 in London to Dr. Anthony Addington and his wife Mary Hiley. Henry was elected to the House of Commons in 1784 and was elected Speaker of the House of Commons in 1789. Henry Addington then served as Prime Minister of England from 17 Mar 1801 until 10 May 1804. Henry Addington was created Viscount Sidmouth, of Sidmouth in the County of Devon on 12 Jan 1805 and the family had retained this peerage to this day.

Our ancestry for Henry Addington(1714/20-1787) connects to the above English titled family about 5 to 6 generations before that family was titled.

From "THE TEN MILE COUNTRY AND ITS PIONEER FAMILIES," by Howard L. Leckey, 1950

George Burson, ancestor of the American family came from Scarborough, Yorkshire, England, about 1684 and settled near Abington, Montgomery County, Pennsylvania. His wife was Hannah Goode. They were members of the Abington Monthly Meeting of Friends (Quaker). They later lived in Gilbert Manor, near Valley Forge, where George died in 1715. George Burson's will is on file in the City Hall, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, dated 26 November 1715, probated 11 February 1716. He names wife, Hannah; children James, Joseph, Mary, Ann, William, and George; and a Clarence V. Roberts in Upper Bucks County, Pennsylvania.

Joseph Burson was born in Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania, in 1689 and died in Loudoun County, Virginia, in 1776. Joseph married Rachel Potts and had at least seven children.

Joseph Burson moved in 1739 to Bucks County, Pennsylvania, and to Virginia in 1751 where he presented a certificate to the Fairfax Monthly Meeting.

From "BURSON INDEX," compiled by Charles M. Marsteller, 1995

1731 The living descendants of George Burson deeded the land at Gilbert's Manor to George Burson, Jr. (Sarah, the widow of James, had remarried and signed the deed along with her husband, John Town.)

1689 25 Dec - Joseph Burson, son of George & Hannah, was born in Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania. (Abington Monthly Meeting)

1714 18 May - Joseph moved with parents to Gilbert's Manor, Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania. (Deed)

1719 15 Aug - Joseph Burson married Rachel Potts, daughter of Jonas and Mary, at Gwynedd Monthly Meeting.

The children of Joseph Burson & Rachel Potts, born at Gilbert's Manor, Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania, are Mary Ann (b 1721), James (b 21 Nov 1722), Joseph (b 1724), Benjamin (b c1726), Rachel (b 1728), Deborah (b 1730), Absolom (b 1733), and Sarah (b 1739).

NOTE: Neither Sarah, nor her birthdate of 1739, have been confirmed. Based on Sarah Addington's death records and two references to her age at death, Sarah's birth year was probably 1723 or 1726

1739/53 Joseph & family moved to Bucks County, Pennsylvania. (Buckingham Monthly Meeting)

1753 25 Aug - Joseph transferred from Buckingham Monthly Meeting to Loudoun County, Virginia, with Rachel and children, Benjamin, Rachel, and Deborah. (Fairfax Monthly Meeting)

1758/62 Joseph was appointed 'Overseer' of Potts Particular Meeting. (Fairfax Monthly Meeting)

1761 Joseph entered into a partnership with nephew, John Burson, in Loudoun County, Virginia.

1770 Joseph in conflict with executors of son Benjamin's will of 19 Sep 1769.

1767 Joseph, Jr. moved to 96th District, South Carolina - served as Asst Pastor at Fairforest Baptist Church - received 150 acres in the fork between the Broad/Saluda Rivers, Buffalo Creek Branch of the Fairforest Creek.

1783 Joseph, Jr. received a land grant in Wilkes (now Warren) County, Georgia.

From "HISTORICAL COLLECTIONS RELATING TO THE POTTS FAMILY IN GREAT BRITAIN AND AMERICA," by Thomas Maxwell Potts, 1901

Rachel Potts married Joseph Burson of Gilberts Maner, Philadelphia County on 15 July, 1719. Witnesses to Joseph Burson and Rachel Potts' wedding included Tho. Potts, John Potts, Jonathan Potts, Jonas Potts, Mary Potts, David Potts, Hannah Potts, Hannah Burson, James Burson, William Burson, Ann Burson, Mary Burson.

On 29 June, 1754, a plantation in Limerick Township, estate of John Starr, bounded in part by lands owned by Joseph Burson and Jonas Potts, was sold. Joseph Burson was Jonas Potts' son-in-law.

George Burson and Hannah Goode were parents of Joseph Burson, born 25 December, 1689, recorded in Abington Monthly Meeting. Joseph inherited land from his father in 1713. He moved to Virginia about 1753. Joseph Burson, Sr. and Joseph Burson, Jr., presented certificates to Fairfax Monthly Meeting in Virginia, from Buckingham Monthly Meeting in Pennsylvania on 25 August 1753. On 30 September, 1758, Joseph was appointed Overseer of Potts Particular Meeting, released in 1762. Meeting held at house of David Potts.

In 1771 and 1772, George, Benjamin, James, and Joseph Burson were listed on Rental Rolls of Loudoun County, Virginia.

The first record we have of Henry Addington in South Carolina is on 2 Jun 1772 when Henry signs a warrant to have some land surveyed which Enoch Pearson did on 8 Jun 1772. Henry probably moved to South Carolina in 1768 and had been working this land for some 4 years.

JOHN ADDINGTON

1- JOHN ADDINGTON, b. 5 Oct 1745, Bucks Co., PA, (another bible record says Newton Township, Bucks Co., PA 11 Oct 1749), d. 1833, Chester, Wayne Co., IN, will recorded 30 Aug 1833, m. (1) MARY LAMB *ca*1769, VA or SC, b. *ca*1750, d. 25 Apr 1774, Newberry Co., SC, (2) ELIZABETH HEATON, 3 May 1775, Bush River MM, Newberry Co., SC, d. unknown, fa JOSEPH HEATON, mo LEADA SMITH, Quaker

JOHN ADDINGTON first married a Quaker, MARY LAMB. MARY was condemned on 24 September 1772 by the Bush River Monthly Meeting for having married outside the Church. She was readmitted when JOHN became a Quaker taking his oath. After MARY's death, JOHN married ELIZABETH HEATON. He remained true to the Quaker way of life.

In 1800, JOHN's brother, JAMES, died and named JOHN as guardian of his children.

Slavery had become quite popular among the landowners in South Carolina. The ADDINGTON families who were Quaker did not embrace slavery and it became quite difficult to compete in the farming industry with others who were slaveholders. In the period 1805 to 1806 nearly all the Quakers began a northern migration from South Carolina for the free states of Ohio, Indiana, and Illinois. JOHN took his family, some of JAMES' children, and his widowed mother to Ohio and later to Indiana. There were five ADDINGTON and two ROBERTS families that formed the colony called "Addington" now the town of Chester, Indiana.

The migration from Union County, South Carolina to Ohio and Indiana must have been challenging. There were few roads and what roads that existed were barely more than Indian paths. The most probably route that John Addington and his family would have taken would have been to follow the back trails to Greenville, South Carolina. There they would picked up the Catawba Trail which headed northwest through Henderson, Buncombe and Madison County, NC to Cook County, TN. Then to Claiborne County, TN and into Bell County, KY. To Knox County, Laurel County, Pulaski County, Lincoln County, Boyle County, then finally Mercer County, KY. At Mercer County, they would have taken the Tennessee to Detroit road straight north. They would have passed through Woodford County, Scott County, Grant County, then Boone County, KY., crossing the Ohio River, somewhere near what is now Cincinnati. They would have proceeded into Hamilton County, Ohio, Butler County, north to Preble County, then west to Wayne County, Indiana The trip is roughly 570 miles and surely took at least 2 months to complete. They may have had wagons in their journey or they may have just had pack horses. In a biography of Thomas Addington, it stated that his parents rode horseback from South Carolina to Wayne County in 1807.

Some descendants have reported JOHN ADDINGTON's burial at Ridgeville, IN, in 1819 but only a grandson, 1-1-4 John Addington, is buried there. It is more likely that JOHN is buried at Chester, Indiana, near where he lived.

Will of John Addington

In Union County, South Carolina, George Potts wrote in his will, dated 9 May 1801, bequeathing "unto Elizabeth Addington my Daughter the sum of Twenty Dollars to be paid unto her for the support of her son William Addington..." For many years we were not able to identify this William Addington but now feel that this is the William above. We had long known that his first wife was named Elizabeth.

In the list of children for William and Elizabeth there is a 7 year gap between their second and third child. We now think that they had a son William who may have died after the 1801 will. Later in 1807 they had another son whom they also named William.

DAVIS

JOANNA ADDINGTON's mother BARBARA HARSHMAN-ADDINGTON married (2) John Wilson. John Wilson moved the family to McDonald County, Missouri, in 1867. JAMES MERANDA wished to marry the young JOANNA and he followed them from Indiana to Missouri. They were married when JOANNA was 15 years of age. Seven children were born to them, the two youngest being twins. Sadly, one twin, LAWSON, died at 5 months. One month later, JOANNA died. JAMES never recovered from his grief and 2 1/2 years later he shot himself. JAMES' brother, Lewis McPherson Meranda, went to Missouri and brought the children to Indiana. MERCY and MINERVA, still teenagers, were placed with families until grown, working for their keep. EFFIE, 11, and ROSE, 9, went to an orphanage at Knightstown, Indiana. JAMES and LONA were adopted.

My will is that William R. Addington; Thomas Addington; Joseph R. Bear Creek Cemetery is located in Franklin Township of Randolph County, Indiana. It has also been known as New Dayton Cemetery which was the name of a nearby church, which no longer exists. The cemetery contains at least 59 Addington burials and there are more Addington burials in this cemetery than for any other family. The cemetery is about 1 mile from the Bear Creek Friends Church (Quaker) but the cemetery has no official association with the church.

Obituary
Last Friday evening at 9:30 o'clock, there occurred at Canby, Modoc County, the death of Mrs. Deihless Dollarhide, the wife of Amasa Dollarhide. The end came at the birth of the mother's eleventh child, both mother and babe being the victims of the great Destroyer. Mrs. Deihless Dollarhide, whose maiden name was Addington, was born in Cedarville, Cal., Sept. 12, 1885, and at the time of her death was 40 years, 1 month and 24 days. She spent her childhood, maidenhood and young womanhood in Surprise Valley. Twenty-two years ago, she was united in marriage at Alturas with Amasa Dollarhide, and from this union eleven children were born, nine of whom remain to mourn her loss: Gerald, Ilybell, Erma, Emma, Floyd, Elva, Lois, Elmer, Darrell, besides the bereaved husband. Among mourning relatives are her mother, Mrs. Emma Addington, five brothers and four sisters, Jesse, Henry, Leslie, Frank, and Orren Addington: Sisters, Mrs. J. Dollarhide, Mrs. P. Dollarhide, Mrs. Lizzie Metzker and Mrs. Josie Shedd of this place. The funeral was held in the Cedarville Church on Sunday afternoon at two o'clock, the service being conducted by Rev. M. J. Williams. A mixed quartet furnished the music and the interment was in the Cedarville Cemetery. A large number of relatives and friends filled the church to overflowing, and this large attendance bore silent testimony to the high esteem in which the deceased was held. The entire community unites in sympathy for the motherless children, and the bereaved husband and mourning relatives.

ADDINGTON: - David, son of Joseph and Cecil Townsend Addington, was born at Chester, Wayne county, Indiana, March 9th 1828, and died at his home one mile south of the Maxville church, July 19th 1902, at the age of 74 years, 4 months and 10 days.

He leaves a devoted wife, one son, one daughter, eleven grandchildren, twelve great-grand children, and only one surviving brother, with many other relatives and friends to mourn their loss. Father, mother, all of his brothers and sisters with one exception, and two of his own children were waiting to welcome him on the other shore.

In 1807 his parents left South Carolina on account of their opposition to slavery, and with his grand-father John Addington, and two uncles John and Thomas Addington, settled at Chester, Wayne Co. Richmond was at the time a small village of log cabins, much of the land on which the beautiful city now stands being government property, subject to entry at $1.25 per acre. The Indian had not yet left his native forests which were full of game. About the same time two other uncles settled in Randolph county in the vicinity of Ridgeville.

His parents were life long members of the Friends', being perhaps charter members of the society at Chester, which after nearly a century of usefulness still lives as a monument to the faithfulness of the early pioneer, Christians who were willing to endure harness and privation in the cause of Christ.

In the twenty-seven years spent in Wayne county they saw the forest gradually give way to productive farms, the blazen path replaced by good roads, and comfortable dwellings take the place of log cabins. Here all their children were born and in the early spring of 1834, when David their youngest son was a boy of six years old, they sold their farm at Chester and a second time braved the hardship of pioneer life that they might secure homes for all their children. They settled on Sparrow Creek one and a half miles south of Maxville, on the farm on which David spent nearly his entire life and on which he died. But a sad affliction awaited them in their new home. The family was stricken with that mysterious poison known as "milk sickness" of which the father and two sons died. The two young men who died were named Elisha and Stephen. One son Thomas and daughters, Rachel and Elvira, had married in Wayne county. Thus the widowed wife and mother was left in a new country, on a farm yet to be redeemed from its native forest, with a family of three sons to provide for, Jonathan than a young man and Benjamin and David, boys of perhaps seven and nine years, and one son Elisha [should be son Elihu], went to the home of an uncle in Wayne county, Isaac Commons, with which he remained til grown to manhood.

The wife of the married son soon after died leaving a babe, Henry which was adopted by the widowed grand-mother and cared for as her own. She also took to her home one of the children of her daughter, Rachel Elliott who had died leaving a husband and four children.

Of the hardships, privation and toil through which this family fought its way at that time, the present generation can form no conception, and yet, in the midst of our rich abundance and our ten thousand opportunities, we hear continual complainings and invectives against the hardness of their fate and their want of opportunity, by many who have never learned the a b c of real hardship and struggle as known to these early pioneers.

With these surroundings David grew to manhood, toiling late and early through spring, summer and autumn, in helping to cultivate the little farm, gather in the ripened products and subdue the forest. There were no public schools and he could attend the subscription school of the day only as time could be snatched from his necessary labor at home. Yet with these disadvantages he secured sufficient education for the intelligent management of the business affairs of life, and dearly loved to read good books, and his religious and political papers.

As before said, his parents were Friends. In coming to the new home they did not leave their religion behind them, but had their church membership transferred from Chester to Dunkirk, and the widowed mother and her family afterward became charter members of Sparrow Creek meeting, where they attended services regularly, not only on the first day of the week, but one day in the middle of each week.

David Addington and Huldah R. Bolinger were married Nov. 27, 1851. Nov. 27th, 1901, they celebrated their golden wedding by a pleasant and profitable family reunion. They were the parents of four children, three daughters and one son. Two daughters, Celia Ellen and Rosa Belle, died at the ages of two and four years. One daughter, Mary E., wife of James Pursley, and the son Joseph L., are yet living on the old home farm and on one adjoining it.

The M. E. church at Maxville was blessed with a gracious out-pouring of the Holy Spirit and revival of vital piety in the winter of 1858-9, under the pastoral labors of the Rev. L. J. Templin ably assisted by other ministers of the same and of sister denominations. More than one hundred being converts, were added to the army of the Lord, and old professors were quickened into renewed spiritual life. The Friends meetings at Dunkirk and at Sparrow Creek had gone down and being without a church home nearer than Popular Run and Cedar, he, to encourage the work of grace then in progress, cast his lot with them – the church waving their rule on baptism in his favor. He remained a faithful and consistent member to the time of his death, being, as long as able to attend, an active worker in the church. At the same time he was broad and liberal in his spiritual live and loved to meet with the children of God, without regard to denomination. Wherever he found the spirit of the Master, there he felt at home. He always felt an especial attachment to the church of his father and of his own earlier religious life, and would often attend and participate in their meetings.

Through all his life he was an enemy of slavery and intemperance and an earnest worker in the cause of liberty and sobriety. He was also intensely loyal and at the opening of the civil war seriously contemplated going into the army, but circumstances however seemed to forbid. All could not become soldiers, someone had to look after affairs at home, not only for themselves but for their neighbors as well, who were in the tented field. This part of the work fell to the lot of David, among others, two families at least being under his especial care and oversight, besides his own, as well as a general interest in the families of all soldiers in his vicinity.

I lived on an adjoining farm when I went into the service, and I left a wife and four small children, one a babe of two months old. I shall never cease to be grateful for the care he bestowed upon them in my absence of more than nineteen months. Besides this, his nephew, Henry Addington, whom his mother had cared for all his life, had married and was the father of three girls and of one son born after the father had gone into the service. These, with their mother, David took charge of and cared for the same as his own family. And when the father died of disease in the hospital at Nashville, Tenn., he still gave them a home and looked after all their interests till the mother was taken away by death, and the children had grown to maturity and were able to care for themselves. These are but a few of the many instances which might be given of his broad and liberal spirit, and the great benevolence of his heart.

He was an inveterate foe to the liquor traffic and years ago cast his lot with the Prohibition party; and being very plain spoken and earnest in his convictions, and having never learned the arts by which hard things, are sometimes spoken smoothly, he sometimes made enemies among those who differed from him. But even these will accord him the honor of honest convictions and of answering fidelity to conscience at all hazards and regardless of cost.

Of his father's large family, consisting of father, mother, nine sons and two daughters, there is now living but one son, Benjamin, robbed in so short a time of his companion and his only remaining brother, his lot is surely a sad and lonely one. But he looks forward with answering faith to that glad reunion, which in nature cannot be distant in the future, when they shall meet again in the Eternal city.

Funeral services at the residence Monday, July 21st, at 1 o'clock p.m. conducted by Rev. W. R. Freeland, assisted by Rev. W. C. McKaig and the writer. Burial at Maxville.

Rev. Thomas Addington

Woodlawn Cemetery (also known as Maxville Cemetery) is located in White River Township of Randolph County, Indiana and is about 2 miles east of the town of Farmland. The cemetery contains at least 118 Addington burials and there are more Addington burials than for any other family. All of these Addingtons would be descendants of John Addington (1745-1833). The earliest burial in this cemetery is about 1832 and the earliest recorded Addington burial is 1859. The cemetery is located next to a church which was first built in 1838. The church has been several different denominations and is currently independent as the Maxville Christian Church. The church and the cemetery have always been independent of each other.

Woodlawn Cemetery probably has more Addington burials than any other cemetery in the United States.

Located at Chester, Indiana, as early as 1814 an indulged meeting of Friends for worship was allowed and known as the Westfork Meeting. In 1818 a meeting for worship and a preparative was established and the name was then changed to Chester Meeting. The Chester Meeting was formally set off from the Whitewater MM in 1823. John Addington and several other members of his family were listed as early as 1807 in some of these records.

Land records in Wayne County, Indiana show that John Addington, Jr. sold 2.5 acres at the edge of his land to the Trustees of Friends MM on 2 Aug 1820 for $16. The Friends built a Meeting House and started a cemetery on the property in the northeast corner. The meeting house no longer exists but the cemetery is now known as the Chester Cemetery and is still in use and fills the entire property. The oldest section shows many rows where there are clearly missing stones. Sarah Burson Addington died in 1826 and is probably buried here. Her oldest son John Addington died in 1833 and is also probably buried here. Today there are only three stones identified as Addington. The oldest is the stone of Rebekah Addington who is the first wife of John Addington, Jr. The other stone is for John Addington(1820-1908) and his wife Sabra Ann Sails.

The 1850 US census shows that Absalom Addington, age 26, born in Indiana is listed as a miner in the city of Placerville in El Dorado County. Placerville is about half way between Sacramento and Lake Tahoe and in located in an area of the Sierra Nevada gold fields. We do not know how well Absalom did in the gold fields but he stayed in California. In the 1860 thru 1900 census he lived in Sacramento County and his occupation is listed as “Potter.” Absolom must have traveled back to the Midwest because his marriage record shows him marrying Martha Jane Boyd on 10 May 1852 in Knoxville, Illinois. They returned to California to live and raise their family. Martha died in 1896 and Absolom died in 1913. They are both buried in Mountain View Cemetery, Oakland, California.

ALEXANDER E. ADDINGTON moved his wife to Baca County, Colorado, arriving with three horses and $35.00. Their first home was a hole in the ground with a cover over the top. The family was forced to crawl through a small entrance. ALEXANDER wanted to be a farmer, but this venture was not successful. He sold his Colorado land to a large cattle company and moved to Morton County, Kansas. Alexander went into the cattle business and prospered. At one point he ran up to a thousand head of cattle, and large numbers of horses and mules. A sod school house was built nearby and was called the "Addington School."

SARAH ADDINGTON received an A. B. degree in 1912 at Earlham College, Richmond, Indiana. SARAH, writing under her maiden name, wrote a series of children's books which became quite popular in their day. Her books were "The Boy Who Lived in Pudding Lane" (1922), "The Pied Piper in Pudding Lane" (1923), "The Great Adventure of Mrs. Santa Claus" (1923), "Round the Year in Pudding Lane" (1924), "Pudding Lane People" (1926), "Jerry Juddikins" (1926), "Tommy Tingle Tangle" (1927), "Grammar Town" (1927), "Dance Team" (1931), and "Hound of Heaven" (1935).

The following is taken from the January 1941 issue of the EARLHAMITE, the alumni magazine of Earlham College, Richmond, Indiana.

Sarah Addington Dies
Was Known as Author

Editors Note: The following account of the life of Sarah Addington was supplied by Miss Emma Bugbee, a member of the staff of the New York Herald Tribune, her close friend for over twenty years.

Sarah Addington, Class of 1912, widely known author, died at her home in New York City, November 7, after a long illness. Most prolific in the field of childrens stories, gay and whimsical, she had distinguished herself also in journalism and contemporary comment, for she loved the swift drama of history in the making and her keen mind attacked its secrets with unfailing zest. Always abreast of the liberal thought of her times, her career began in spirited adherence to woman suffrage, and ended while absorbed in studies of the Mexican revolution.

Classmates of Miss Addington remember that she was conspicuous at Earlham in a number of dramatic performances and that she contributed numerous short stories of high quality to THE EARLHAMITE. Those who knew in later years remember her as a conscientious alumna, not merely grateful for the past but concerned for the future well-being of her Alma Mater.

Following her graduation from Earlham she attended Columbia University where she graduated as the only women member of the first class of the Pulitzer School of Journalism. Then came a year and a half of determined but blithe effort to gain a foothold in the writing world which she never doubted was her destiny. She worked in advertising, as manuscript reader and as copy reader, sharing typewriter and lunch money with another impecunious young women journalist. A series of free lance articles procured for her a position on the New York Sun.

In 1915 she became special writer for the Sunday magazine section of the New York Tribune and later was assistant publicity director of the National American Women Suffrage Association. IN 1917, when New York state granted the vote to women, she resigned to marry Howard Carl Reid, now a director in the investment firm of Frederick H. Hatch and Company of New York City. Mr. Reid was a former Richmond neighbor, though he had attended Harvard college rather than Earlham.

Still a complete modern, Miss Addington continued her newspaper career under her maiden name after her marriage, serving in the city staff of the Tribune, and later entering the publicity field again. From 1921 to 1923 she was on the staff of The Ladies Home Journal which printed her series of Pudding Lane, stories for juvenile readers, afterwards published in book form. Other childrens books which she wrote at this time were Jerry Juddikins, Tommy Tangle Tingle, Grammar Town, and Mary England, the latter an effort to foster better understanding between children of Great Britain and America, the result of her own happy association with English Friends. She wrote voluminously also for adults, her fiction appearing regularly in numerous magazines. A series of humorous stories about a Japanese butler had wide popularity. She wrote also two novels; Dance Team, a study of two young professional dancers, and published in 1931, and Hound of Heaven, an appealing dog story, in 1935. She had been listed in Whos Who in America, for many years.

Although illness early crippled her ability to assume responsibility outside her library, she was always an ardent supporter if not an active participant in numerous liberal movements and literary groups. her high spirit never faltered. As late as 1937 she wrote a rollicking account which will be long remembered of a wife's reaction to the prospect of attending a Harvard class reunion. (Incidentally she attended that reunion herself and knew an honest exaltation at sleeping in Emersons own room and communing with Harvards other immortals under Harvard elms.) In recent years Miss Addington had passed much time in Mexico for her health, where with characteristic intellectual alertness she had become an authority on the movements there for political and social reorganization.

She was the daughter of Benton and Martha Benham Addington. Her father was a student at Earlham in 1879-80. Hers was a rare combination of lively intelligence and passion for scholarship, coupled with unfailing gaiety and tenderness. The college which helped develop such a mind must feel proud of her record and desolate at losing her from its list of friends.

Sarah Addington
Was born in Cincinnati, Ohio. Until she was twenty-one she lived in the Middle West - Ohio, Kentucky, Chicago, and Indiana. She went to Kenwood Institute in Chicago and graduated from Earlham College, a Friends Institution at Richmond, Indiana. Coming to Columbia University for graduate work in English, she eventually became the only woman member of the Columbia School of Journalism’s first Senior Class of 1913. Journalism followed, her first job on the New York Times followed by others on the Evening Sun and the Tribune. Starting to write, she had published a number of attractive books for young people and distinguished herself by short stories for leading magazines. Her novel, “Dance Team,” was much praised and was subsequently made into a motion picture. She is married and lives in New York. Her country place at Washington, Connecticut, is a 1760 story-and-a-half house up to its ears in bridal wreath and hollyhocks.

Sarah Addington declares herself “fanatic about animals, dogs, cats, horses, elephants.” Her other interests include old furniture, first editions, jazz music, the theatre, dancing fencing.

Taken from the History of Randolph County, Indiana by E. Tucker, 1882: Sparrow Creek (north of Buena Vista; Section 33, Town 20, Range 14). --This graveyard is much out of repair. Few tombstones are found. Daniel Beals' grave is there, who was quite aged. Several Addingtons lie there, but no gravestones, except Daniel Beals,' show an age beyond sixty years. Many graves appear, but nearly all have only rough stones, without any mark or definite token. A Friends' Meeting-House was once hero, but it has been gone for forty years or more. The cemetery has an old fence around it, but the only way of access is through an old field, and it is, perhaps, fifty rods from the highway.

Sparrow Creek Cemetery was visited in 1991 and two Addington stones were found and were quite readable. This was a big surprise since the cemetery was reported in 1882 as being much out of repair.

(Newspaper article 30 Jul 1931)

Fatally Injured in Train-Truck Crash

Joseph Addington, eight years old, was killed Tuesday afternoon and his brother, George Elbert, 20 years old, both of Ridgeville, was seriously injured when a lumber truck in which they were riding was in collision with southbound Pennsylvania passenger train No. 514 half mile north of Ridgeville at 1:48 p. m.

The two boys are sons of Mr. and Mrs. George Addington. The father is the manager of the Ridgeville Lumber Company and according to information from eye witnesses abroad the train, the lumber company truck, in which the boys were riding, struck the side of the train at an angling crossing. The truck was dragged approximately 100 yards after the impact.

Joseph suffered injuries which caused his death about one half hour after the accident. George Elbert had one foot cut off, the other foot being mangled so badly that Portland hospital authorities, where he was taken, were of the opinion it would have to be amputated. He also suffered severe head and body bruises.

Double Funeral services are held

George Elbert Addington, 19, of Ridgeville, who was injured Tuesday of last week when the truck in which he and his brother, Joseph, 10 were riding was struck by a Pennsylvania passenger train, died Thursday in the Jay County hospital. Joseph was killed instantly in the accident.

Following the crash, George Elbert was removed to the hospital where one foot was amputated and the bones in the other foot, which was also badly injured, set. His mother submitted to a blood transfusion operation in a vain attempt to save his live.

Double funeral services for the brother were held Friday afternoon at the Ridgeville Methodist Church in charge of Rev. Laura Fetters and Rev. Mr. Fisk. Burial was made in the New Dayton cemetery.

George and his brother Joseph are buried under one common stone in what is now known Bear Creek Cemetery in Franklin Township, Randolph County, Indiana, next to his parent's grave.

Gregory Hinshaw developed an early interest in local history and family genealogy by his high school years. He has been a member of the Randolph County Historical Society for over 30 years. Gregory Hinshaw has earned bachelors, masters, and a doctorate degree in education from Ball State University. He spent 12 years in Delaware County teaching social studies and then becoming principal at Delta High School. He then was the superintendent at Randolph Central Schools for the nine years. He is currently the Yorktown Community Schools District Superintendent.

Hinshaw was appointed official Randolph County Historian in 2004 by the Indiana Historical Society and has held that position since. Thomas Addington, 1862

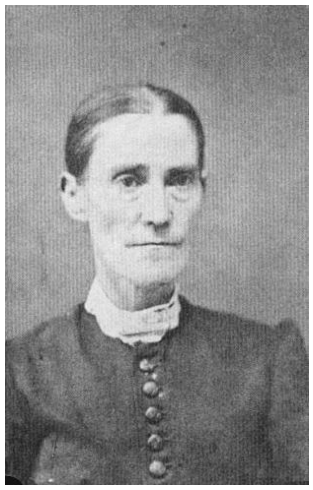
Rev Thomas Addington



Martha Ann Hughes, first wife of Rev Thomas Addington

The Rev. Thomas Addington was a well respected minister in Randolph County. He was pro abolitionist in his views. In 1898 he published a book entitled Jim Baker, sub-titled A Thrilling Episode of Ante-Bellum Days. A True Story of the Oppressed Race Among Friends and Foes.

Rev. Thomas Addington also became the local Addington family historian. Big family reunions became popular in the early 1900s and the Addington family held yearly reunions in Randolph County. In 1910 he addressed the Addington Family Reunion and published the address and listed the names of the approximately 110 attendees. In his remarks he states that the Addington family in America is all of a common origin which is probably not accurate.

Obituary

Thomas Addington, son of Thomas and Mary Smith Addington, was born in Chester, Wayne County, December 5, 1829, and died in Ridgeville, Indiana, January 24, 1912, aged 82 years, 1 month and 19 days. He was the youngest child of a family of eleven children, to-wit: Hannah born in 1808, Matilda born in 1810, David born in 1812, Jesse born in 1814, James born in 1816, Mercy born in 1819, Joseph born in 1820, George born in 1822, Mary in 1825, Elizabeth in 1827 and Thomas in 1829. Of this large family all have now passed away. The Addingtons were among the first pioneers that came to Indiana from South Carolina and settled in Wayne County. They came to Randolph County (Sparrow Creek) in 1834. The father and mother having ridden from South Carolina to Wayne County in 1807 on horseback. They were of a sturdy and hardy race of people of the old-fashioned Quaker stock who had such an honorable part in making Wayne and Randolph Counties what they are today a marvel of progress and christian civilization.

His lot was cast in an age of toil and privations and primitive simplicity, an age when character building was slow and sturdy progress but whose foundations were laid true: piety and loyalty to principle, simplicity and a spirit of self sacrifice for the good of the coming generations.

He received a common school education in such schools as they had at that time and added to that by his desire for more knowledge what he could. In 1858-59 he attended school at Liber College, Jay County, and made great progress in his education.

February 8, 1851, he was united in marriage to Martha Ann Hughs and to this union there was born five children, Zerniah, born 1852; Alfred M., born 1854, Emerson H., 1858; Calvin T. 1862 and Jesse, 1868. All are living but Jesse, the youngest who died some twenty years ago.

His wife, Martha, the mother of all his children died March 25, 1880. The thirty-five years of their married life had been full of sweet and holy companionship, and sacrifice for the good of others. They brought up the family in the fear and admonition of the Lord. He was ordained a minister at the Old Antioch Christian conference in 1858, and from that time as long as his strength permitted he has been preaching the unspeakable riches of Christ to sinful men. Like many other pioneer preachers, he never received much money compensation but still he preached constantly for over half a century and lived on a farm and worked for his living. He preached at Olive Branch, 17 years; Clear Creek church was organized by him, Old Whitesun, Shiloh, Shuffle Creek, Jefferson and many others we cannot mention were the churches blest by his labors. As a minister he was in the front rank in his church, a strong and vigorous speaker, sound in the faith of the Gospel, full of the spirit of the Master, and a valiant defender of the truth and the enemy of all sinfulness in any shape. He has added to his Faith, courage, knowledge, temperance, patient and godliness and brotherly kindness and charity, and these are the things that will give him, an abundant entrance into the everlasting kingdom. In his church he was strong councelor and a natural leader among brethren, never aspiring to office yet he served as president of the Conference and his firm stand for the Old Book and the old paths was one of his strong characteristics. He was a brilliant writer and poet and one of his hymns was sung at his funeral.

August 2, 1864, when the war clouds thickened over the country, he felt it his duty to leave the farm, his family and his pulpit to go to the defense of the flag, and he enlisted as a private in Co. A, 84th Regiment Indiana Volunteers, under Capt. William Burris. He was promoted to Chaplain of the Regiment, November 26, 1863 and served as Chaplain until failing health made it necessary for him to come home and he resigned as Chaplain, march 15, 1864, being one of only two men who were promoted from the ranks to Chaplain during the war. After he came home he went back to the farm and the pulpit and took up his life's work.

September 9, 1887, he was again married to Margaret Painter, who was to him a faithful and loving wife until the end came. He was a member of the G. A. R. and served as their chaplain many years and they will miss him at the Post. He was a favorite with his company and Regiment as all who know him loved and admired him and hope to greet him again at the Great Reveille in that morning.

He died as he lived in the triumph of that living faith. He bore his last suffering with Christian patience and has left behind him blessed and sweet memories as a glorious inheritance: "Work well done and victory won." He leaves to mourn him in blessed hope, his wife Margaret, one daughter, three sons, ten grandchildren, seventeen great-grandchildren, many nephews and nieces and other relatives, and a great host of brethren, sisters and friends in the church who will cherish his memory and hope to meet him in the "Sweet Bye and Bye."

After impressive funeral services at the New Dayton church by Rev. Summerbell of Dayton, Ohio and the obituary read by Elder I. P. Watts, the body was laid to rest in the Dayton cemetery by the side of his wife, Martha and son Jesse to await the Master's call.

John Lewellen Addington and 2nd wife Nancy Fancher

John L. Addington bought a Bible in August of 1787, less than a year before he died. He recorded many family records of births, marriages and deaths. Most of these records are consistent with other data from the census and other records. He also wrote about his great grandfather Henry Addington who died in 1787. John L. Addington would have been 16 years old when his great grandmother Sarah Burson Addington died in 1826 at a very old age. John L. wrote his great grandfather was born in 1727 and immigrated to America in 1745. This is not consistent with Henry Addington being in legal records starting in 1735. John L. Addington also stated that Henry married Elisabeth Buson. This is the only known reference to Henry's wife being named Elizabeth. In every other record she is only referred to as Sarah. Several other inconsistencies in what he wrote about the early Addington history lead to some doubt about the accuracy of what he knew and recorded.

JAMES ADDINGTON

2- JAMES ADDINGTON, b. c1751, Bucks Co., PA, d. ? prob. 1800, Union Co., SC burial location unknown, possibly Padgett's Creek Meeting House Cemetery, Union Co., SC m. REBEKAH GARRETT, Jan 1776, Berkley, Union Co., SC, b. 1755, SC, d. probably before 1810 Quaker

JAMES ADDINGTON fought under COL Brandon and GEN Francis Marion, the "Swamp Fox," in the Revolutionary War. Some family stories reveal that JAMES was in the British Army and managed to be discharged but this story seems questionable.

His will, signed on 28 July 1798 and probated 3 February 1801, listed nine children. Ten children were listed with REBEKAH in the 1800 census record, the tenth child being a girl under 10. JAMES appointed his brother, JOHN ADDINGTON, executor of his estate and guardian of his children. It has been assumed that JOHN moved JAMES' younger children along with his family to Ohio in 1806 and to Indiana by 1807. However, there is no record in those states of the three younger children living there. REBEKAH was named in JAMES' will and was present at the probate, but evidently did not move to Ohio. JAMES' children, John T., KARENHAPPUCK, and RACHEL, were known to be living in South Carolina as young adults.

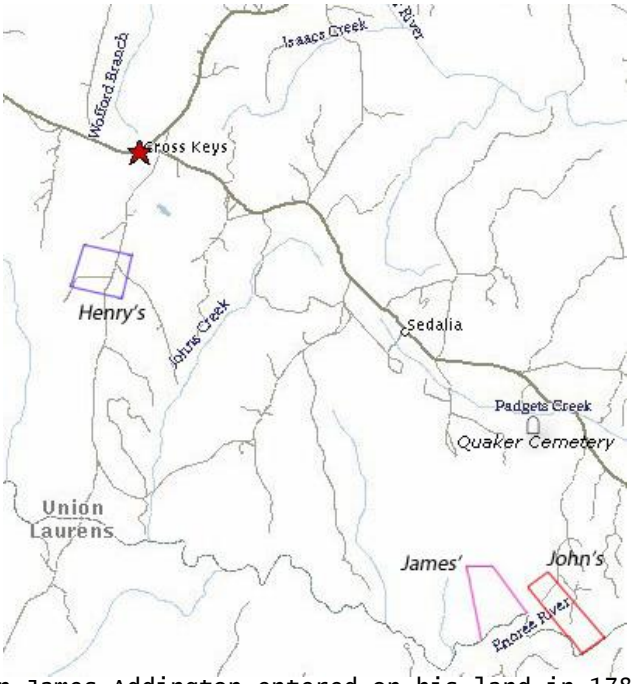
James must have died before the 1800 US census was taken because Rebeca is listed as head of the household in Union County, SC. Someone listed James Addington as being buried in the Cane Creek Quaker Church Cemetery, Santuc, SC. James Addington and family were listed in Cane Creek MM records but this cemetery is eleven miles from the James Addington land grant. Padgett's Creek Quaker Cemetery is located about two miles from his land so it is more likely that he was buried there if not on his own property. Padgett's Creek Quaker Cemetery appears to have been in use between 1793 and 1830. There are few recognizable stones in this cemetery and several stones have just initials.



Son James Addington entered on his land in 1785.
Son John Addington entered on his land in 1786.
These properties are about 5 miles southeast of Henry's land.
The Old Quaker Cemetery north of their land might be the burial location of some Addington relatives and maybe James who died in 1800.

It has been assumed that JOHN T. ADDINGTON traveled to Ohio and Indiana with guardian and uncle, JOHN ADDINGTON in 1806. However, a Union County, South Carolina, deed dated 27 Aug 1818 states, "John Addington, late of the State of Tennessee & County of Lincoln," sold his part of the property which was left by his father, JAMES ADDINGTON, to his four sons. The 1820 Census records list him with a female between the ages of 16-25 years. This woman was probably his younger sister, RACHEL ADDINGTON. In 1836, JOHN and family migrated to Gilmer County, Georgia. They were living in neighboring Cass (now Bartow) County, Georgia, in 1851.

RACHEL ADDINGTON was not named in her father's will, nor is she listed in the Quaker records as being his daughter. The 1800 Union County, South Carolina, Census record does show one more daughter in the household of REBEKAH ADDINGTON. She was known to be the sister of JOHN T. ADDINGTON and lived near him in Georgia. The Memoirs of Georgia, dated 1895, which contained many errors, one of which was identifying her father as "Henry" instead of JAMES, did list RACHEL as married to JOHN McELREATH. It is assumed that RACHEL was born about the time of her father's death or perhaps shortly after.

It is possible that RACHEL was one of the children who went to Ohio in 1806 with her guardian and uncle, JOHN ADDINGTON. If so, she returned to South Carolina in her late teens. RACHEL is probably the woman listed in the 1820 Census of Union County, South Carolina, as living in the household of her brother, JOHN T. ADDINGTON.

It has not been documented that RACHEL is the mother of JARRETT ADDINGTON listed below, but it appears very likely. RACHEL and her husband, JOHN McELREATH, left

South Carolina in the late 1830's and migrated to Georgia. They lived near JARRETT in both Gilmer County and Cass County, Georgia. Some of the McELREATHs followed JARRETT and his family to the Gainesville, Texas, area. McELREATH descendants still live in that area near the descendants of JARRET ADDINGTON.

JOHN T. ADDINGTON's children were known to call JARRETT "cousin." They were known to have visited with and to have written to JARRETT and his family after their move to Texas.

2-10-1- JARRETT ADDINGTON, b. 29 May 1817, Union Co., SC, d. 3 Jul 1891, Whitesboro, Grayson Co., TX, bur. Fairview Cem, Gainesville, Cooke Co., TX, Sgt, GA Mounted Vol, Indian Wars, wounded in FL, discharged on 7 May 1838, farmer, musician, singing teacher, m. LUCINDA AMANDA SPIVEY, 11 Jan 1840, Gilmer Co., GA, b. 19 Apr 1818, MO, d. 18 Aug 1895, Whitesboro, TX, bur. Fairview Cem (1838 Hall Co., GA, 1840 Gilmer Co., GA, 1842 Cass Co., GA, 1847 Cass Co., GA, 1857 Cooke Co., TX, 1870 Grayson Co., TX)

JARRETT ADDINGTON arrived in Gainesville, Cooke County, Texas, when it was just a stagecoach station. He became one of the largest landholders in Cooke and Grayson Counties. Land that was claimed to be a part of a ranch was not always owned, but was used by the person strong enough to hold it. He and his sons lived the lives of "wealthy cattle barons." JARRETT was known for his music and taught singing and conducted choirs. His choirs were said to be the very best in Texas.

JARRETT ADDINGTON apparently died without leaving a will. It appears his wife, LUCINDA, acquired all of his assets and she disposed of them in her will.

JAMES PRESTON "PRESS" ADDINGTON and his brothers, ZACKARY T., CHRISTOPHER C. and ANDREW J., moved into the Chickasaw Nation, Oklahoma Indian Territory, between the years of 1860-1870. They controlled thousands of acres of ranch land and ran cattle herds numbering in the thousands both in Texas and Oklahoma. In the late 1800's, the large ranches were broken up. The Chickasaw Indians charged the ADDINGTONs as "intruders" and were able to reclaim most of the reservation land. When the Rock Island Railroad came into the area a town was plotted with the intention of making it a "Rock Island town." "PRESS," along with two other prominent men of the area, laid out the present townsite and the Rock Island officials abandoned their plans. The town was named ADDINGTON, Oklahoma, in honor of JAMES PRESTON ADDINGTON, promoter and first postmaster.

The town of Addington is located at 34°14'36" N 97°58'0" W in Jefferson County, Oklahoma. The post office was established on January 8, 1896.

Addington was originally located on the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific Railroad. Now the tracks through the town are operated as part of the Union Pacific system.

The town was incorporated in 1901. The population peaked at about the time World War I began, and has continued to decline ever since. The population at the time of the 2010 census was 114.

Jerry Spears Addington (1918-1994)

In June 1937, Jerry was a mere 17 years old when he left home in Nocona, Texas to seek his dream of a college education at West Point. He never looked back and a distinguished 30 year career followed. He married Eleanore (Billie) Flaherty in 1942 and soon left to serve his nation in the Pacific Theater where he saw duty in Guadalcanal, New Guinea, Luzon, and the North Solomon Islands. Upon his return from the War he attended Columbia University and then served on the Academic Staff at his beloved West Point. Subsequent stations were in Athens, Greece, Washington DC, Army War College at Carlisle, PA, Camp St. Barbara, South Korea, Ent AFB, Colorado Springs, and Dhahran, Saudi Arabia. During those years he earned the Distinguished Service Medal, the Legion of Merit w/3 clusters, the Bronze Star and the Air Medal. He retired as a Brigadier General in 1970 and began a second career as a Secondary School Math Teacher in New Mexico. After 11 years of teaching in Albuquerque Public Schools he retired again. Upon his death in September 1994 he was survived by his wife Billie, daughters Linda, Leslie, Ellie and son David and 8 grandchildren. Never has one been revered so highly and missed so deeply by his survivors as our beloved "Pap."

Their children refused to furnish a marker, not wanting "to give even a penny to the memory of that drunken half-breed." SUSAN told her children to "remember, you are an ADDINGTON," when she sent them off to school.

HENRY ADDINGTON

3- HENRY ADDINGTON, b. c1755, probably Bucks Co., PA (most researchers use the name "HENRY, JR.")

Tracing HENRY, JR. has been a task that many have tried. He remains one of the mysteries of the ADDINGTON family. There have been rumors that HENRY, JR. favored the British during the Revolutionary War. Documents have not been found to support this claim. There has been some speculation that he went to Lincoln County, Tennessee. But, again, no records have been found to verify that he lived there.

The records below have been found for persons by the name of Henry Addington.

Henry Addington obtained land in Orangeburg District, South Carolina, on 3 Dec 1785, on the waters of the Saltcatcher.

Notice in Georgia Gazette, 29 Apr 1790, "Taken up last week on Little Ogechee, a canoe built cypress boat, 41 feet high. The owner may have said boat on applying at Bourquin's Old Field and paying charges to Henry Addington."

Notice in Georgia Gazette, 5 May 1791, "Taken up a black horse. The owner may apply at Bourquin's Old Field on Little Ogechee to Henry Addington."

Henry Addington obtained Headright and Bounty Grant to 150 acres in Liberty Co., Georgia, 1790-1795. Land warrants in 1791.

Henry Addington listed in 1790 Tax Digest (earliest record) in Chatham Co., Georgia.

Henry Addington of White Bluff paid taxes, in 1798, in Chatham Co., Georgia.

Henry Addington witnessed will of Frederick Treutlen, Chatham Co., GA, on 17 Feb 1798.

Will of Robert Bolton, Chatham Co., GA, 19 Nov 1802, "Desires that titles be given to the heirs of Henry Addington for a lot in Hampstead."

Guardianship papers for minor children after the death of Henry Addington in 1808, in Chatham Co., Georgia. His wife was Catherine Ballor, her parents were John and Catherine Ballor. Children: Rachel, Catherine, Jenny, Jane, Nancy Rachel & Catherine were 'minors over 14' in 1809, Ballors were given guardianship. Edward White was appointed guardian of Jenny.

Based on all of the above data, possible family relationships may be:

HENRY ADDINGTON, JR., b. bef. 1771, d. 1800-1802, married location unknown but possibly in Chatham Co., GA or the surrounding area, 1789-1790 to Catherine Ballor, d. prob. 1807-1808.
possible children:

3-1- Mary Addington, b. c1790, d. ?, m. 6 Jan 1808, Chatham Co., GA, John Manley
3-2- Catherine Addington, b. 1790-1794
3-3- Rachel Addington, b. 1790-1794
3-4- Jenny Addington, b. c1795
3-5- Jane Addington, b. c1796, d. 2 Mar 1815,Chatham Co., GA, age 19
3-6- Nancy Addington, b. 1797-1801

Since Henry Addington, Jr. only had daughters, the family name apparently died out. At this time, there are no known descendants of his daughters.

BETHENA ADDINGTON McCLAIN

4- BETHENA ADDINGTON, b. 1757, probably Bucks Co., PA, m. JOHN McCLAIN, before 1 Mar 1787, Union Co., SC

Nothing further is known about BETHENA and JOHN. Descendants, if any, have not been identified.

WILLIAM ADDINGTON

5- WILLIAM ADDINGTON, b. after 7 Sep 1759, PA (probably Bucks Co.), d. 7 Sep 1845, bur. First United Methodist Church Cemetery, Franklin, Macon Co., NC, Revolutionary War veteran, SC State Militia, m. DELILAH "DEE" DUNCAN, 23 Dec 1782/4 at her home near Duncan's Creek, Newberry Co., SC, b. 1765, Newberry District, SC, d. 1845 in Union Co., GA, bur. at First United Methodist Church Cemetery, Franklin, Macon Co., NC, daughter of JOHN DUNCAN and JANE ____ (surname may be MARCH), Methodist

WILLIAM ADDINGTON served in the Revolution War, joining the South Carolina State Militia in 1781, and fought in the "Siege of Ninety-Six." He served two months as a Private for CAPT William Young; for four weeks as a Private for CAPT James Bruton; and three months as a Lieutenant for CAPT William Young. All under the command of COL Thomas Brandon. He marched in pursuit of white and Indian Tories to the Little Tennessee River in North Carolina. Also served in areas of Orangeburg and Charleston, South Carolina. WILLIAM's pension application, dated December, 1833, from Macon County, North Carolina, was granted only for his service as a Private.

In 1787, WILLIAM inherited his father's plantation in Union County, South Carolina, with instructions to provide for his mother, SARAH. However, his mother did not stay with him and traveled to Ohio and Indiana with his brother, JOHN. Soon after 1800, WILLIAM and DELILAH sold the farm and moved to Buncombe County, North Carolina, were they lived for 20 years. In the early 1820's, they moved west to what is now Macon County, North Carolina, with several of their children. About 1836, WILLIAM and DELILAH moved to Blairsville, Union County, Georgia. It is believed WILLIAM was visiting his son, MOSES, when he died, and was buried in Franklin, North Carolina, near MOSES' home. WILLIAM's gravestone gives deathdate as 1846, but his will was entered for probate in 1845.

DELILAH, was allowed a pension on her application executed 2 December 1848, from Union County, Georgia. There is a discrepancy of three years in the birthdates of WILLIAM and DELILAH's children as listed on DELILAH's pension application and their individual records. The dates on the individual records are most nearly correct and are used here.

Gravestone reads:

SACRED
To the memory of
WM ADDINGTON
Who was a Revolutioner, and a Consistent Member of M.E. Church for 40 years Died Sept. 7th, 1846
aged 87 years

The gravestone has W M Addington which I think is just an abbreviation for William given the lack of space. Several researchers have assumed that M is the middle initial and made up a middle name of Moses. The will only says William Addington. The author knows of no other document which lists a middle initial or name for William.

JOHN moved from South Carolina to Buncombe County, North Carolina, in the early 1800's where he married RACHEL. They later lived in Macon County, North Carolina. In the 1840's, JOHN took his family to Gilmer County, Georgia and on to Jackson County, Georgia, in 1851. He bought the 2500 acre Cunningham Plantation, Jackson County, Georgia. JOHN's death date of 30 August 1861 is based on the fact that on that day he stopped making payments to a doctor which he had been seeing almost daily for over a month. Shortly after a coffin and black velvet was purchased by his family, along with a number of new shoes for the slaves (approximately eight).

Deborah Norville was born in Dalton, Georgia. She won her town’s local Junior Miss contest, a beauty contest for high school senior girls and represented Georgia in the 1976 America’s Junior Miss pageant. She graduated summa cum laude from the University of Georgia earning her BA in journalism.

Deborah Norville began her television career while still a college student when she received an internship through Georgia Public Television. She then started working weekends for WAGA-TV in Atlanta. In 1982 she was hired as a reporter and later an anchor by WMAQ-TV in Chicago. In 1986, she joined NBC News in New York City.

In September 1989 Norville was named news anchor on the Today Show and when co-host Jane Pauley announced her desire to leave the Today Show, Norville was named her successor. She left the show when taking maternity leave for the birth of her first child.

Deborah Norville returned to television in October 1992, when she joined CBS News as a correspondent and held several different positions with CBS. In 1995, Deborah Norville was named anchor of Inside Edition, a syndicated newsmagazine, a position she continues to hold. She has won two Emmys for her news reporting.

Royce Lee Addington (1946-1970)

Ratliff City Soldier Dies

RATLIFF CITY - This town's first loss to the Vietnam War was reported Monday among the latest casualties in Southeast Asia.

The Department of Defense announced the death of Army Spec 4 Royce L. Addington, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl E. Addington of Ratliff City. He was reported dead of non-hostile causes.

He was the first casualty of the war from Ratliff City, a town of 309 population which recorded no war deaths in the Korean War.

His death brings the number of Oklahomans killed in Vietnam during the last 7 1/2 years to 1,025.

Published in the Ardmore Daily Ardmoreite, November 17, 1970.

Royce was born in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma in 1946. He started school at Crooked Oak grade school when he was six years old. In 1958 we moved to Ratliff City, Oklahoma (pop 50). Royce graduated high school at Fox High School in Fox, Oklahoma. Two of his brothers didn't bother with it.

Oklahoma had a draft system for the military. All the males in the family received a draft notice at different times. They were a little late on two of us. Leon and I were in the army when we were notified. Royce had plans to attend veterinary school when he graduated high school. He as with many, war got in the way.

Royce was a happy go lucky type of guy. Sometimes not so lucky. Accidents often followed him. When he was about five years old he was hit by a car and dragged approximately twenty-five feet.

He survived well, at another time, he was helping his older brother with a carburetor problem. The car engine backfired, Royce caught fire and started running. Leon jumped from the driver's seat, chased Royce down and smothered the fire. It was an accident that caused his death in Vietnam.

His dad and mother grieved real hard because of his death. They both are now gone to be with him. Them spending time with him is a comfort to me.

Brothers forever..

Mick Addington

John Henry Addington and son Emanuel

Joseph Emmanuel Addington was known as Manuel to his family. He joined the army and was stationed in the Philippines. Was enlisted in the Marines. Never married. Joseph Emmanuel (Manuel) Addington was born in Indian Territory in what is now Sallisaw, OK. He was killed in 1914 in the Philippines at the age of 23. He is buried in grave #317-A in the Presidio, San Francisco, CA. The name plate says, Joe M. Addington. Manuel was never a cowboy, but he should have been. He liked singing, fighting and breaking horses. He was handsome, daring and wild. He was posted in the Philippines while in the army as Lloyd had been, but they were there at different times. A friend of his wrote to his mother saying that he had been killed by Philippinos for dancing with the Philippino girls. Manuel was 6'2" tall, weighed 185 lbs. was muscular, broad shouldered and well built. He had blue eyes, black hair and a fair complexion.

Steve Addington (1947-2004)

Obituary:

STEVE ADDINGTON, 56, the man who originally proposed preserving much of Fort Ord, died January 29. He was born in Shelby, North Carolina to a military family alternately stationed in Japan, Germany and Washington State. In 1966 he joined the U.S. Marine Corps and worked as a photo-journalist in the Caribbean and Vietnam. He later earned a degree in archaeology.

After marrying Kathy Powers in 1972, the two traveled extensively before Steve accepted a position with the U.S. Bureau of Land Management as an archaeologist and wilderness specialist in Boise, Idaho. His travels, from the tropics of Bali to the heights of the Himalayas, fostered an appreciation for natural resource management.

A Marina resident, Steve was working in the BLM's field office in Hollister in 1991 when he attended a Monterey meeting that was called to discuss the Army's closure of Fort Ord. He explained the unique habitat at Fort Ord, with its large stand of western chaparral, and said it was so valuable that it should be preserved. That was one of the early planks of the reuse planning at Fort Ord. The plan adopted by FORA provided for about 60% of the 28,000-acre former Army base to be preserved as natural habitat.

In 1998 Steve left his position as the BLM Fort Ord Project Manager to become Area Manager in the BLM's Eastern Sierra office, where he continued his innovative and visionary leadership and dedication to collaborative resolution of public land use issues. He returned to this area, following his diagnosis in 2002 of a rare brainstem tumor, to work on one last project involving his passion for protection of our public lands.

Steve was recently recognized by the Monterey Board of Supervisors for the establishment of Fort Ord's Bicycle-Equestrian Trail Assistance (BETA) group and for his community-based protection of the natural habitat at Fort Ord. A portion of Fort Ord has been designated "Steve Addington Glade." His friends and family will remember him for his love of nature, recreation, and travel as well as his boundless energy, integrity, courage, humor and ever-present smile. Steve is survived by his wife, Kathy, his mother and five brothers and sisters.

HENRY left South Carolina with his parents for Buncombe County, North Carolina, early in the 1800's. He bought Cherokee land on Skennah Creek, Macon County, North Carolina, in 1819, and was one of the first settlers of this county. He was listed in the Love Survey in 1820 with 30 others. Adequate roads were needed and this job fell to the militia companies. Through the courts they were given permission to recruit volunteers and set up crews to work one day a month. They were not paid, but considered this to be for the good of all. HENRY was an appointed overseer of the road construction and worked on sections of road passing through his community. HENRY and his brothers built the road (now Hwy 28) that follows the French Broad River, Macon County, North Carolina. He continued to purchase property and owned approximately ten thousand acres most of which was adjoining his original purchase, but also many acres in Union County, Georgia. HENRY was known to have at least thirteen slaves. After his wife MARY died, he divided his holdings between his four sons. HENRY lived his remaining years with his son, JAMES, to whom he had given his homeplace.

Addington Cemetery, Macon County, North Carolina, 2014

The Addington Cemetery was initially a private family cemetery located about 400 yards northeast of the Henry Addington House. The cemetery was overgrown for many years but the Prentiss Church of God bought land around the cemetery and built their church there about 12 years ago. The church cleared the land around the Addington Cemetery and it is now in the center of their new cemetery. There are 14 Addington graves in this cemetery. The earliest burial was in 1830 and the latest Addington burial in 1934.

William Monterville Addington enlisted as a private in Company H (the "Jefferson Davis Macon County Guards"), 16th Regiment N.C. Troops (6th Regiment N.C. Volunteers), on May 14, 1861. In June he transferred to the 1st Regiment N.C. Cavalry as "acting quartermaster" with the rank of first lieutenant. Promotion to assistant quartermaster (captain) followed in October 1861, but Addington resigned on April 15, 1862. On the same date, he received another appointment as first lieutenant and transferred to Company K (the "Nantahaha Rangers," a Macon County company), 1st N.C. Cavalry. Addington became a captain again in March or April 1863 and served through December 1864, the date of his company's last surviving muster roll.

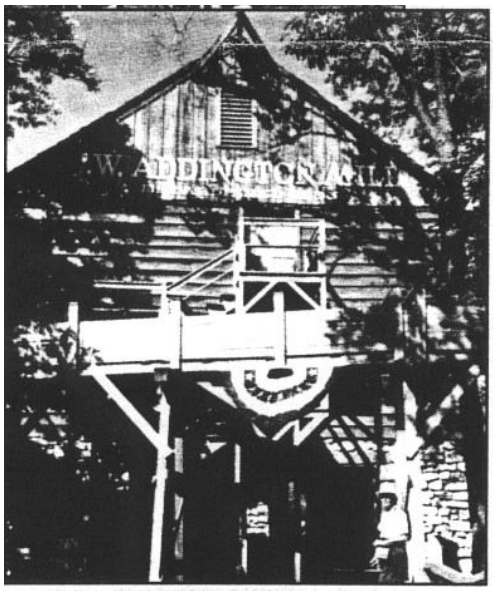
Addington Mill built by James Brownlow Addington (original location)

The ADDINGTON MILL was built in 1861 by John Brownlow Addington on Skeenah Creek across from the Henry Addington House. Today its location would have been across Addington Bridge Road from the South Macon Elementary School. J. W. "Uncle Jake" Addington inherited the mill from his father, J. B. Addington, and continued to operate it. The mill was pretty much operated continually until 1964.

The mill was purchased by the Cedar Point Amusement Park in Sandusky, Ohio in 1971. It was disassembled, transported to Ohio and reassembled to almost original condition. It became part of Frontier Trail, which opened in May of 1971, and features numerous other buildings, such as a log cabin and blacksmith shop, from the same time period. Most of the other buildings on the trail were purchased from Ohio; however, historians working for Cedar Point had to expand their search to find a restorable, authentic grist mill. That search led them here to Addington Mill. Though it had not been used since 1964, the mill was still intact and in good working condition. According to a historical brochure published by Cedar Point, Addington Mill is very unique in that all of its working parts were constructed of wood. Most grist mills as old as Addingtons were converted from wooden to metal parts to withstand friction. The last known alteration done to Addington Mill before it closed was in 1927. The wooden waterwheel was replaced with a metal one, made by the Fitz Waterwheel Company of Hanover, Pennsylvania. The remainder of parts exist as they did more than 100 years ago. Historians are grateful the old mill that holds so many fond memories from the past is still standing so people from all over the country can enjoy a little piece of the past.



It took more than a dozen trips to transport the mill's lumber and stones from Macon County to Ohio.

MOSES' parents had established their home in Buncombe Co., North Carolina, when he was about nine years old. In the early 1820's MOSES and LYDIA moved west to Macon County, North Carolina. MOSES bought several parcels of land during the next few years and eventually owned 900 acres. He farmed and worked the timber. MOSES was driving a four horse team when he was thrown from the wagon and both legs were broken. He died a few days later. His property was sold at auction and divided among the children, LYDIA receiving dower rights on the home place.

Six children of LORENZO and VALENCIA were listed on census records. There may have been more. Their sons, JOHN, MOSES, and SAMUEL left North Carolina for Benton County, Arkansas, in 1877. SAMUEL being only nine years old at that time. It is believed that VALENCIA had either died or was too ill to care for her youngest son. LORENZO soon followed his sons to Arkansas. He lived with MOSES and his family for a few years. The last record of him is his divorce from his second wife, ELIZABETH, in 1886. It is not known if he remained in Arkansas or returned to North Carolina.

5-5-2-1- JOHN C. ADDINGTON, b. c1848, Macon Co., NC, m. NELLIE A. WEIR, 2 Jan 1878, Elbert Co., CO (div)

JOHN left North Carolina in 1877 with his brothers, MOSES and SAMUEL, and stopped in Benton County, Arkansas, for a few months. His brothers remained there, but he journeyed on to Colorado. He was known to farm, and is believed to have worked in the silver and gold mines for many years. He was described as being a staunch Republican. In his last letter written to his brother, MOSES, he related that he had seven sons. However, only one son has been identified.

He was divorced and living alone at Critchell, Deer Creek P. O., Jefferson County, Colorado, in May, 1899.

MOSES and his brothers, JOHN and nine year old SAMUEL, came from North Carolina to Benton County, Arkansas. His brother, JOHN, moved on to Colorado. MOSES married REBECCA and bought 40 acres near Springtown where their first eleven children were born. MOSES' young brother, SAMUEL, made his home with them also. About 1894, MOSES and his family moved into Delaware County, Cherokee Nation, Oklahoma Indian Territory. They were allowed to rent only as much land as they needed from the Cherokees. Ownership was not possible at that time. Farm animals ran on free range as there were very few fences. MOSES and his older sons farmed, raised hogs and cattle, and worked the timber.

KEITH served in U. S. Air Force from 31 Jan 1972 through Jun 1979, trained as a computer systems specialist on Missile Launch Systems, at Vandenberg Air Force Base, assigned to the First Strategic Aerospace Division. He and BARBARA lived with step-daughters, KRISTIN and KARRIE THEIS, at Lompoc and Oxnard, California.

As a civilian, he continued to work on assignments supporting U.S. and foreign governments. KEITH maintained, supported, established, and developed electronic systems for the U. S. Air Force, U. S. Navy, U. S. Satellite Control Facility, U. S. Strategic Air Control Headquarters, U. S. Train Test Center of Peacekeeper Missiles, Royal Thailand Air Defense System, Republic of India Weather Satellite Station. Assignments for the first personal computer terminals for the U. S. and British Post Offices and the first database for U. S. Patents were accomplished.

KEITH and his family lived in New Delhi, India, for 18 months. He was manager and systems engineer/instructor for India's first Weather Satellite Ground Station. BARBARA volunteered her nursing skills at a Free Clinic during this time.

Without a break in his work schedule, KEITH completed his Bachelor and Master of Science Degrees, Business Organization Management, at University of Laverne, California.

KEITH traveled to Thailand, Japan, China, Great Britain, France, Germany, and Italy, on different assignments. His diplomatic nature in the exchange with members of these foreign countries was exceptional.

Family vacation time involved traveling around the world twice, visiting numerous countries. He enjoyed riding a motorcycle with BARBARA. A natural musician, his guitar was always nearby.

KEITH was employed by Boeing Aerospace Division, assigned to National Aeronautic Space Administration (NASA) in 1991. He was lead liaison engineer, at Canoga Park, California, testing and trouble-shooting for the soon to be assembled space station. In 1996, KEITH became manager of electrical power systems at the NASA facility, Johnson Space Center, Houston, Texas. Three years later, he transferred to Kennedy Space Center, Cape Canaveral, Florida. He was project manager with a team of aerospace engineers insuring each launch carrying the sections of the International Space Station were equipped and tested in avionics, power systems, structures, and mechanisms. As a certified scuba diver, KEITH was privileged to participate in the training of astronauts in their 40 foot deep pool. Many hours during a launch, he was in the control room performing on-console contact with the astronauts during each shuttle launch. In April, 2001, the International Space Station assembled and occupied, KEITH's mission accomplished.

When asked if he would go, if given the opportunity to travel in space, KEITH's answer was always, "In a heartbeat!"

CPL AARON P. MANKIN, U.S. Marine Corps, served as a Combat Correspondent stationed at Camp Fallujah, in Iraq. On May 10, 2005, AARON took his camera and joined an expedition to film the action for CDR Oliver North (Ret). He was one of fourteen Marines in a transport vehicle blown up by a large Iraqi explosive. AARON was one of six that survived. He suffered burns on his lungs, arms, hands and lower face. He will spend many months at the Brooke Army Medical Center in San Antonio, TX. His arms and hands have received skin grafts; and plastic surgeries to remove scar tissue from his face. His camera was lost, but another Marine was also filming and captured the bombing and subsequent removal of victims by helicopter. Aaron was one those lying on a stretcher. This film was shown a few months later on CDR Oliver North's televised program on FOX network.

15 Jun 2005 - The USA Congressional Record, 109th Congress, First Session, No. 79, Vol. 151 - HON. John Boozman of Arkansas, read into the Record --
RECOGNIZING THE SACRIFICE MADE BY AARON MANKIN
Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize the sacrifice made by Lance Corporal Aaron Mankin, of Rogers, Arkansas.....badly wounded while serving in Iraq.....I was in Fallujah several weeks before and Aaron actually showed us around. I cannot tell you how proud I was of him and how proud he was of being a Marine and serving his country in Iraq.....Mr. Speaker, at the young age of 23, Aaron has made a tremendous sacrifice for his country. He is a true American hero. I ask my colleagues to keep Aaron and his family in their thoughts and prayers as he continues down the path of recovery....I yield back the balance of my time.

MILLER, mo SOPHRONIA ADELAIDE DOWDLE, Methodist

LOWRY was a wagon master for a wagon train that traveled several times a year from North Carolina to South Carolina and on to Savannah, Georgia, to meet ships coming in with supplies such as sugar, coffee, bolts of material, etc.

LOWRY always stopped at the Travellers Inn in Greenville, South Carolina and eventually married the innkeepers daughter, SARAH JANE. LOWRY bought 700 acres of farmland in the area and remained in Georgia. SARAH JANE's father gave them slaves to work the farm, but at the beginning of the Civil War, LOWRY and other Methodists decided to free their slaves. Most of the slaves stayed on and worked anyway. LOWRY had polio when he was a child and had a crippled leg. He served in the Confederate Army for four years, driving a supply wagon, not being able to be a foot soldier.

Jessie and Lee Monroe Addington on their 50th wedding anniversary

Lee Monroe Addington was born 7 Feb 1892 in Alabama, WI, the eighth child of William M. and Kate Addington. At the age of fourteen Lee starting working at a stone quarry for 10 cents per hour. Later he worked at logging and then in construction at several sites in nearby states. As 1917 approached and war clouds were looming, Lee met a young pretty girl named Jessie Merrill and they were married on 4 Mar 1918. In July Lee received his famous “Greeting” from the President of the United States and he reported to the Army. He reported to South Carolina for training and became part of the Third U. S. Pioneer Infantry.

The unit sailed on 30 Aug 1918 for Brest, France. The unit fought in the Meuse-Argonne offensive and Lee survived until the Armistice. His unit served as part of an occupation force in Germany and he did not return to the US until July of 1919. Lee and Jessie started their family and moved to several different states following the work. In 1927 they moved to Burgettstown, PA where Lee found work with a coal company. They lived there until Lee retired in 1957.

After he retired, Lee decided he wanted to know more about his Addington family history so he started corresponding with relatives and traveling to old family locations. Finally he ended up at the grave site of his great great grandfather, Lt. William Addington in the First United Methodist Church Cemetery in Franklin, NC. In 1965 he published his book “The Crooked Trail” which is the account of his search and his Addington heritage. He died on 10 Feb 1977 at the age of 85.

JANE EDWARDS graduated from Cullowhee High School in 1964 and with the help of an Alcoa Scholarship from Western Carolina University in 1968 with a B.S. in Biology. She later earned a Master of Library Science degree from the University of Maryland in 1977.

Jane worked as a laboratory technician at the University of Florida in 1968-1970. In 1975, she married Daniel Jones, a biochemist and amateur musician, whom she met at the National Biomedical Research Foundation, Georgetown University, Washington, DC, where she worked as a science librarian and he as a postdoctoral fellow.

In 1977, Jane was employed at the American Type Culture Collection (ATCC), Rockville, MD, and Manassas, VA, where she worked first as a librarian and cataloguer of non-book materials such as bacteria, fungi, and cell lines, and then as a cataloguer and editor of data on biological resources at the Collection. Jane was the principal compiler and editor of a number of ATCC reference catalogs including two editions of Microbes and Cells at Work. In 1992, she appeared as a guest on National Public Radio's Talk of the Nation program in which panelists asked questions and tried to guess what she and other contestants did for a living. They correctly guessed the tattoo artist and the insect trainer, but Jane's profession as a cataloguer of microscopic life forms stumped them all.

Jane and Dan were married in her sister Dale's living room in 1975. A few years later, when Dale and her husband Dave moved to Florida, Jane and Dan bought this house and lived there for the next 25 years. Jane worked this theme into one of her poems entitled Nowhere Else: From this window / we've watched the seasons change / from green to gold and back again /... We were married here / We may die here. / That's okay with me. / There is nowhere else / I'd rather be.

Thanks largely to her mother's example and encouragement, Jane was a highly skilled seamstress. She made many of her own clothes and curtains for the house, and knitted sweaters, afghans, and baby blankets for others. In the 1970's, she took an upholstery class and completely reupholstered one chair and two sofas for her and Dan's living room. Over the years she made customized dustcovers for Dan's stereo and recording equipment, including several with miniature plastic windows through which the digital clock display could be viewed. Jane also made form-fitting covers for Dan's harps with aesthetic designs such as embroidered sprigs of barley and Scottish thistles. The crowning achievement of her sewing career was the custom wedding gown she made for her niece Sylvia in 1989 and which Sylvia generously displayed at Jane's memorial gathering.

Jane's cooking repertoire spanned everything from cornbread to kolaches (a traditional Czech pastry that Dan grew up with). She maintained traditional practices of her southern mountain upbringing such as putting up the harvest in fruit jams, apple butter, pickle relish, etc. She also successfully adapted other culinary traditions to her kitchen such as French, Italian, German, and Chinese cooking, with an occasional foray into more exotic cuisines (her kulebyaka, a Russian dish of salmon in a pastry crust, was delectable). At a professional meeting in Winston-Salem in 1997, Julia Child personally autographed Jane's copy of Mastering the Art of French Cooking. Over the years, Dan developed a reluctance to eat out at restaurants because he knew he could get a better meal at home.

In the last year of her life, Jane shared some of her recipes and those of others, as well as a generous helping of family history and photos, with her family and friends in a family cookbook called Calico: Edwards Family Food Served Edwards Family Style. ("Calico" is an Edwards family-specific salad.) Jane compiled and edited the recipes and family history and personally produced 100 copies of the 176-page cookbook and covers on her home color printer. She concluded the cookbook with the following afterthought: This project has been fun, fattening, and frustrating, / And I've learned a thing or two. / But I almost did / What Mother warned us not to do: / I almost bit off more than I could chew.

Jane's most consuming spare-time interest was family history. Some say she cared more about dead relatives than living ones, but she pointed out that dead relatives don't talk back as much.
She pored over census records, land records, and Bible records, and made personal visits to cemeteries, courthouses, and scores of close and distant cousins in an effort to reconstruct her family's history. When Naomi Patterson died in 1988, Jane took over the editorship of the manuscript on Addington family history and saw it through to publication in 1989. Jane helped to revive annual Edwards and other family reunions and in 1991 she founded Edwards, a family history newsletter that prints more news about the family of John and Corinne Edwards than any other publication in the world.

Perhaps Jane's most striking achievement in family history was her positive identification, in 1995 at Milltown Farm near Leesburg, Virginia, of a house which was built by her ancestor William Addington in 1765 and which is still standing, handmade nails and all. Jane planned and hosted an Addington family reunion in Leesburg in 1996 with an illustrated talk by Dan on Early Farming in Northern Virginia and an afternoon field trip to Milltown Farm. The field trip was almost a religious experience for the Addington reunion participants. The farm was then being operated as a bed and breakfast inn and Jane and Dan spent three of their wedding anniversaries there.

Jane always liked to take on big projects. The Addington book, the Milltown Farm project, the Calico cookbook, and family sketches for the Edwards newsletter are prominent examples. At the time of her death, Jane was working on two big work-related projects, an exhaustive survey of organizations all over the world that cite ATCC cultures in their published standards; and revision of three chapters on gene nomenclature, chemical nomenclature, and copyright policy for a reference manual of the Council of Science Editors called Scientific Style and Format.

She died before she could finish either project. She was looking forward to having more time in retirement to go through her late Aunt Virginia's things and other sources of family history information to see what could be discovered. Perhaps others can pick up where she left off.

On July 18, 2004, Jane wrote one of her last poems.

Soulful Hugs

Please don't worry about my soul.
I'm leaving it in good hands.
I put a large portion into the love
I have for each of you,
and a big piece into the gifts I've made,
the stories I've told,
the research I've done to tell you who you are.

There was some left over,

so I sprinkled it onto the salad and stirred it into the jam, kneaded it into the bread and added it to the stew.

I added extra to every hug,
to every card,
to every poem,
to every place where I could squeeze it in or embroider it on.

Please don't worry about my soul.
I'm leaving it in your hands.
Please be careful with it.

SAM and DEMIE ADDINGTON lived on Pearce Chapel Road and owned a telephone business, operated by a small exchange board in the corner of one room of their home. About 1935, they sold the exchange and started a grocery store. Their grocery business grew and they built a larger house with the new store located in the front part of the house. In 1954, SAM and DEMIE were robbed, killed, and their grocery store was burned around them. They are buried in the same grave in Bethlehem Cemetery.

NAOMI LOUISE ADDINGTON began researching ADDINGTON history in 1968 while helping her husband, BOBBY DEAN PATTERSON, work on his family history book. They traveled all over the East Coast, hunting ancestors and cousins. She wrote letters and made friends nationwide, corresponding with hundreds of ADDINGTON relatives. NAOMI organized the first ADDINGTON family reunion in 1978 at Bethlehem Community, Monroe Co., MS. The reunion is now held yearly. NAOMI, with the help of JANE EDWARDS, wrote ADDINGTON. a directory of the descendants of Henry and Sarah Addington of Union County, South Carolina. NAOMI died in 1988 before this book could be completed. JANE finished the book, saw it published and sold. After NAOMI's death, her husband, BOBBY DEAN PATTERSON, continued working with the ADDINGTON family, hosted some of the reunions, kept the family organized, until his death in 1998.

HENRY NEWTON ADDINGTON traveled to Benton County, Arkansas, in the early 1870's. He moved into the Cherokee Nation, Oklahoma Indian Territory, and married MINERVA, a Cherokee. However, soon after their son was born, HENRY abandoned them and returned to Georgia. He was never heard from again by his Oklahoma family. MINERVA experienced some difficulty rearing their son alone, but was proud to see CICERO become an outstanding citizen in the community. MINERVA lived with CICERO and his family until her death. HENRY married EUGENIA after returning to Georgia and had another family.

MARTHA LUCINDA SMITH, 18 Jan 1845, Gilmer Co., GA, b. 29 Mar 1925, d. 14 Jan 1902, Bentonville, Benton Co., AR, bur. Bentonville Cem

In 1852, WILLIAM RILEY left Georgia with MARTHA and their first three children intending to make their future home in Texas. It is believed that MARTHA had relatives there. They made their way to Boone County, Arkansas, and five years later to Benton County, Arkansas. WILLIAM RILEY built a blacksmith shop and the family was well established when the Civil War began. WILLIAM RILEY favored the North, but MARTHA and her family were strong Southerners. He made the decision not to join either Army. Remaining neutral was not possible, however. The Union Army made its way through Benton County, and WILLIAM RILEY was taken to Fort Gibson, in Oklahoma Indian Territory, to work as a blacksmith. It is believed he was there unwillingly, but he was not a prisoner, nor was he conscripted into the Army. Fort Gibson had an epidemic that wiped out most of the men stationed there in 1863. WILLIAM RILEY was one of those that died. There are four thousand unmarked graves at Fort Gibson, one belongs to WILLIAM RILEY ADDINGTON. His boots were returned to MARTHA with the story of his death.

JAMES and MATILDA moved to Georgia soon after their marriage. Between 1858 and 1860, they left Georgia and traveled to Arkansas. The next 25 years they lived in Boone County and Benton County, Arkansas; also Newton County, Missouri. The movement of pioneers to the West beckoned the family, and about 1878 JAMES, MATILDA, many of their children and grandchildren, made up a wagontrain to Idaho. They arrived at Council Valley, Idaho, in 1888, and are recorded in Idaho's history as early developers of the state.

Floyd served as a Seaman Second Class, U.S.S. Jarvis (DD-393), U.S. Navy during World War II. He resided in Waco County, Oregon prior to the war and enlisted in the Navy on December 10, 1941.

On August 8th the Jarvis, while between Guadalcanal and Florida Island, was attacked along with other U.S. ships by 26 Japanese Torpedo planes. 17 of the planes were downed but one that survived dropped a torpedo that struck the Jarvis on the starboard side that left a 50-foot gash.

After the battle the Jarvis departed heading toward Sydney, Australia for repairs. On August 9th, 31 Japanese torpedo bombers attacked the battle damaged destroyer with bullets and torpedoes. According to Japanese records, Jarvis "split and sank" at 1300 on 9 August. None of her 233 remaining crew survived the onslaught. The Jarvis was one of only two American major surface warships to be lost in WWII with no survivors.

Moses Walton Addington (1832-1908)

MOSES WALTON and his young wife (14 years of age) moved to Boone County, Arkansas, in 1853, where their fourteen children were born. In 1887, MOSES WALTON gathered thirty-five members of his family, including some in-laws, and made the journey to Washington Territory. They traveled by wagon to Springfield, Missouri, and then by train to Spokane Falls (now Spokane). They first arrived in the town of Cheney and slept in an old store on a straw strewn floor. Later, MOSES and MARY ANN settled in Pine City, Whitman County, Washington, where they remained. The entire family is recorded as being Washington State Pioneers.

After MOSES WALTON ADDINGTON died, his daughter, RUTH, sent two of her children out to bury his Confederate uniform, not wanting anyone to know he had fought on the side of the South. The two children later regretted doing this and tried to find the uniform. They spent some time digging several holes, but weren't able to locate it.

MARCH ADDINGTON moved as a boy with his parents to Buncombe County, North Carolina, and in the 1820's settled in Macon County. He took his family to Union County, Georgia, in the early 1830's where they remained. MARCH took part in the Dahlonega, Georgia, gold rush of 1828-1830, and used money from the sale of his horse, Blackjack, to buy part of Coosa Creek, Union County, Georgia, where traces of gold were found. He owned and operated the Coosa Gold Mine. MARCH became the guardians of Sarah and Elizabeth Green, orphans, on 10 January 1854. He joined the Confederate Army when he was 60 years of age and served with the Georgia Cavalry Volunteers under CAPT Samuel Patterson.

MARCH's paternity of the three sons of his slave cook, MARY ADDINGTON, is not proven, but is highly likely. Different branches of MARCH's descendants mention MARY and her sons in their family histories.

Union Memory Garden, Blairsville, GA, career U.S. Air Force WWII, Korea, Vietnam, Baptist

Richard Gray was born on a farm in Rockport, Illinois on January 25, 1919, the 5th child in a family of 10 children. At the young age of 15, he decided to strike out on his own and went to work helping with farming chores on local farms. By 1941, he was working in a Packard factory in Detroit helping produce aircraft engines for World War II. While in Detroit he met Eloise Addington who had also come to Detroit to help with the war effort. She was from Blairsville, Georgia and soon, despite the differences of their northern and southern heritage, their attraction for one another blossomed into a full scale romance.

They were married in 1943 and shortly after Richard enlisted in the Army and he was shipped off to Europe. He fought in several campaigns including the Battle of the Bulge and experienced firsthand the horrors of war. One story he told was being in a church with several other GI's during a lull in the fighting and cleaning his Browning Automatic Rifle or BAR. Suddenly a German "88" artillery shell landed behind the church then another landed in front of it and that's when Richard quickly gathered up the BAR parts to clear out. His new commanding officer, who had just arrived from the states and was inexperienced, wanted everyone to stay put. Richard knew from his earlier wartime experience that if the first two rounds of artillery were in front and behind you, then chances are the third round would be on target and he was leaving. Before long the third round hit directly on the church completely destroying it and killing the officer and everyone else who had stayed inside. He felt sorry for everyone that had been killed but his wartime experience had saved his life.

Mostly though, his stories had a humorous tone. Following the shelling of the church he reassembled his BAR only to find that the firing pin was missing. When he returned to the supply depot and explained what had happened, the supply officer rather than giving him a new firing pin or new BAR thought that Richard should have to pay for losing government property. Fortunately, the supply officer's superior realized the absurdity of the situation and Richard walked away with a working gun to fight a war without having to pay for it. He also told a story about one night having to hold his BAR high above his head while his platoon crossed the icy waters of a creek in order to setup a guard position on the other side. The next morning at daybreak, after a night of shivering in cold, wet clothes, only then could the men see a bridge across the creek just another 40 yards downstream.

After the war Richard returned to civilian life and drove delivery trucks through the mountains of north Georgia for a living but before long decided he might do better with a career in the military. This time, however, he joined the newly formed Air Force and was stationed in several locations including: Washington, DC, Fairbanks, Alaska, back to Washington, DC, Clovis, New Mexico, Thule, Greenland, Bitburg, Germany, and finally Minot, North Dakota. He retired in July, 1972 back to Blairsville, Georgia where they built a home for the summer months and in winter they would travel in their Airstream trailer to various locations in Florida where Richard would fish as much as possible. It was a wonderful time for both Richard and Eloise. Many years later their nephew, Wayne Colwell, said that they had enjoyed the best retirement years of anyone he had ever known. Richard and Eloise were married 67 years before his death in 2009. Eloise followed him in 2012.

In early May, 1870, JOHN MARCH ADDINGTON and his family (along with the Butts, Watkins, and Caldwell families) left the war-torn state of Georgia and set out for the Territory of Colorado. They traveled by wagons drawn by mules and oxen across TN and stopped in Benton County, Arkansas, where ADDINGTON cousins were living. After a short rest, they went on to Coffeyville, Kansas, and joined a larger wagon train. Following the Santa Fe Trail across the plains, JOHN MARCH and family members then turned north, arriving in Colorado in September. After surviving the first winter living in tents, the families settled near Gardner, in Huerfano County.

MARTHA was known to be alive at the on the date of her father's will, 1 Mar 1787. GEORGE BRUTON married (2) SARAH "SALLY" ADDINGTON (8-). SARAH "SALLY" was with GEORGE in Kentucky and researchers refer to her as "mother" of his children.

GEORGE filed for a Revolutionary War Pension from Wayne County, Kentucky, in 1832, at age 70. In the application, GEORGE stated that he entered the service from Spartanburg, South Carolina, in 1780. GEORGE moved his family to Madison Co., Kentucky "when he was about 30 years of age." This being 1792. Six years later, the family moved to Wayne County, Kentucky, where he "lived for over 30 years."

The first census record of GEORGE BRUTON and family in Kentucky is for the year of 1810 when he is 48 years old. The 1830 census lists a woman between 50-60 years of age, GEORGE would be 68. There are at least 12 children listed altogether.

It appears likely that MARTHA ADDINGTON is the mother of GEORGE BRUTON's six older children, born in South Carolina. Three younger children, born in Kentucky, are listed with (8-) SARAH "SALLY" ADDINGTON. Other children have not been identified.

7- ELIZABETH ADDINGTON, b. c1764

ELIZABETH was single in 1787 at the time her father's will was probated.

Bastardy charges were filed against her in 1785-1791 Court in Union County, South Carolina. Records state in part:

> The Defendant being called in court to answer to the Said Charge and having refused to discover the Father of her Bastard Child, the Court doth Fine her forty pounds Proclamation Money....Aaron Fincher and John Martindale came into Open Court and acknowledged themselves Jointly and Severally to be Indebted to the Justices of the County Court of Union in the said Sum of Forty Pounds Proclamation money.

ELIZABETH's son, BENJAMIN, was bound to MOSES WALDON, in 1790, at age five.

It has not been proved that VARDY ADDINGTON and JASON ADDINGTON are also ELIZABETH's sons. ELIZABETH, BENJAMIN, and VARDY lived in adjacent residences according to the 1810 Census. JASON and BENJAMIN's son, JESSE, were living in Jefferson County, Alabama, at the same time and married sisters.

7-1- BENJAMIN ADDINGTON, b. 1785, SC, m. (1) _____ _____, (2) CHARLOTTE "LOTTY" TURNER, 1842, Jones Co., GA

BENJAMIN evidently was separated from his first wife probably due to escapades with the law. He was tried for horse stealing in Union County, South Carolina, in 1829. He served jail time from 1835 to 1840 for horse stealing in Franklin County, Georgia.

It has not been confirmed that BENJAMIN is the father of the children below, but appears to be so.

SPAULDING ADDINGTON

Private Spaulding Addington, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Addington, Quinlan, Texas, was born August 6, 1895, at Kingston, Texas, and reared at Quinlan. His last schooling was in Wesley College, Greenville, which recognized his sterling qualities and supreme sacrifice with a beautiful tribute in College Annual. Mr. Addington enlisted in April, 1918, and trained at Camp Travis, being attached to Company H, 359th Infantry, 90th Division. Embarked from Camp Mills, N. Y., in June, same year. After two months training overseas his division started upon its active operations, being ordered to the relief of the First Division. Because of his peculiar fitness for this work he was chosen to act as one of the litter bearers during the St. Mihiel offensive, this being a selective duty. Only the gentlest and most sympathetic men being thus honored. On the night of September 22nd, while on his way to the front to care for the wounded, he and his partner were both struck by a shell; Spaulding was killed instantly, but his companion lived just long enough to tell how it happened. His body lies beneath the poppies of France, for whose freedom he gave his splendid young life. Every military honor possible under that stressing time was shown at his burial. Each year the French decorate the graves of these "Sons of Freedom" who lie in the cemetery near Villery-sur-Poerney, St. Milier sector.

Private Addington was held in the highest esteem by both officers and men, as many letters from his regiment would indicate. His chaplain says, "His death was that of a patriot and a hero; he paid the supreme sacrifice willingly, generously." No greater tribute could be paid a soldier.

WILLIAM DUNN "Willie" worked with older brother, JOHN RILEY, as cowboy and trail cook on a cattle drive into New Mexico. On the return trip, they were driving several head of horses. Willie was in a hurry and decided to leave the drive and "hobo" his way back to Brady, Texas. He was never heard from again. The family feared he fell while riding the rails and may be buried by the side of the tracks near the Canadian River in the Texas Panhandle.

GEORGE BRUTON first married MARTHA ADDINGTON (6-), and she was most likely the mother of GEORGE's first six children. Census records are not very accurate, but the best records available.

Three children born in Kentucky are listed below. It is possible that three or four unidentified children were born to GEORGE and SARAH before 1808.

NOTE: "Mother" SALLIE ANNE was reported as living with ADDINGTON BRUTON in 1850, in Platte Co., MO, by a Bruton researcher. However, the documentation for this is a DAR certificate that contains many errors. A search of 1850 census records did not find SALLIE ANNE BRUTON.

9- CHARLOTA ADDINGTON, b. c1769

CHARLOTA was unmarried and living in 96th District, Union County, South Carolina, at the time of her father's death in 1787. The only documentation of CHARLOTA's existence is HENRY ADDINGTON's will in which he listed her as his youngest daughter.

Husband or descendants of CHARLOTA ADDINGTON have not been identified.

OTHER ADDINGTONS

SAYBIRD ADDINGTON

There is a Saybird Addington who first shows up in the 1830 Tennessee census in Overton County. Records show he was born 24 Oct 1804 and the 1850 census records show that he was born in North Carolina. The William Addington branch of our family moved up into North Carolina about this time. At this time we have no records that can place Saybird in any of our family lines. The y-dna study showed that Saybird is not of the male Addington line. It is possible that Saybird Addington is an illegitimate son of one of the Addington daughters. Saybird Addington has some living descendants in Missouri carrying the Addington surname.

MARY PRESSIA ADDINGTON

There are family trees that show a Mary Pressia Addington, born about 1780 in South or North Carolina, who marries a John White, probably her second husband. These records show the family moving to Tennessee and then to Missouri. She is probably not born an Addington, but married into the family and may have been widowed or divorced. Records are so confusing that it is not possible to say how she is related to the family.

JOHN ADDINGTON of Connecticut

John Addington first appears in Greenwich, Connecticut where he married Hannah Hobby about 1742 and they had several sons and daughters as recorded in Fairfield County, Connecticut birth records. We have no evidence about the origin of John Addington. Some of John’s sons later moved to New York and there are several descendants with concentrations in Erie and Oneida Counties, New York. Son William Addington was a loyalist during the Revolutionary War and later moved to Nova Scotia where he received a land grant. There are Addingtons in Nova Scotia and Maine who are William’s descendants. Some of this family moved back into Maine in the mid 1800s and the Addingtons in Maine all descend from this line.

The Addington Association did a DNA study of male descendants from several of the Addington families in the United States in 2007/2008. The results show that Henry Addington and John Addington of CT are closely related. Henry and John Addington's birth years indicate that they are of the same generation. Further data samples in 2012 indicated that there is a 68% probability that Henry and John were brothers. If not brothers then there is an additional 14% probability that they were first cousins (had the same male grandfather).

Even though this Addington family is very closely related to our Henry Addington, this work will not attempt to list the descendants of this (most probable) brother of Henry Addington.

The Addington Association

founded 1988

Founders and Leaders

Naomi Louise (Addington) Patterson of Amory, MS, was an avid genealogist, and along with her husband Bobby, traveled to several states collecting family data and information. She was instrumental in starting family get togethers and involving other cousins. Some of the other key individuals involved with the founding of the Addington Association were Sylvia Russell of Amory, MS, Jane Edwards of Fairfax, VA, and, Jerry Bowersox of Bowie, MD.

These reunions became annual events and in 1987 it was decided that a book would be published collecting all of the known family data. The Addington Association was formally organized in 1988 and the first newsletter published for the 1988 reunion. Unfortunately, Naomi died of cancer before the reunion but Jane Edwards completed the book entitled: Addington a directory of the descendants of Henry and Sarah Addington of Union County, South Carolina. Annual reunions have been held since 1988 at locations Amory, Mississippi, Blairsville, Georgia, Guntersville, Alabama, Franklin, North Carolina, Union, South Carolina, Richmond, Indiana, Jay County, Oklahoma, Leesburg, Virginia, and Palestine, Texas, all locations with ties to our Addington family.

Several other key individuals have devotedly served the Addington Association over the years. Jerry Bowersox has been our only Secretary Treasurer Membership Chairman for almost 28 years. Jerry Bowersox and June Ponder have been the Newsletter editors. Pauline (Pierce) Addington was one of our very senior members and attended every reunion possible and frequently won the award for oldest member present. Veda Lindsey from Oklahoma stepped up in 1995/96 and did the update on our book and published it. This was a major effort and Veda did a wonderful job on the book. Sylvia Russell was a spark plug who kept the reunions going and was a delight at each one. Larry Wilson helped organize several reunions and did key research. David Addington published a book on the Indiana Addingtons in 1992 and since 1999 has maintained the Addington Association Website.
